

पुलिस ने शुरू किया 'निपुण' ऐप

दिल्ली पुलिस ने बुधवार को अपने प्रशिक्षण कार्यक्रम के तहत 'निपुण' नामक एक ऐप और वेबसाइट की शुरुआत की। पुलिस आयुक्त अमूल्य पटनायक ने कांफ्रेस हाल में आयोजित एक कार्यक्रम में निपुण की शुरुआत करते हुए कहा कि इससे प्रशिक्षण में नए-नए तरीके और अत्याधुनिक तकनीक की जानकारी मिलेगी। विश्वविद्यालय अनुदान आयोग, फिक्की, मानवाधिकार आयोग, एनसीपीसीआर और जानकी देवी मेमोरियल कालेज जनकपुरी और दिल्ली लीगल सर्विस अथॉरिटी के साथ मिलकर किया गया।

जनसत्ता संवाददाता

Millennium Post, Delhi

Thursday, 15th November 2018; Page: 4

Width: 57.61 cms; Height: 13.50 cms; a3r; ID: 1.2018-11-15.31

'Nipun' training and e-learning portal for cops launched

OUR CORRESPONDENT

NEW DELHI: Delhi Police personnel will now be able to undertake online learning courses, while they carry out their duties, thanks to the launch of the new e-learning and training portal 'Nipun' on Wednesday.

Delhi Police Commissioner Amulya Patnaik launched the portal here. Through this initiative, Delhi Police will be able to use advanced technology to imparting in-service training to its personnel.

The portal aims at give online training and information through specialised courses, designed by experts in their respective fields.

With online resource like law, standing orders, investigation checklists, forms for case files, latest High Court and Supreme Court rulings being made available online, it is envisioned that investigating officers (IOs) will be immensely benefitted by enrolling in the portal during their duty.

"The flexibility of taking courses anytime, anywhere will now make it possible for police personnel to upgrade their skills and re-enforce their learning while balancing training time with work time," said Suman Nalwa, Deputy Commissioner of Police (Training).

Many of the courses have been developed in-house, while others have been created in collaboration with institutions like the University Grant Commission, FICCI, NHRC, NCPCR and Janki Devi Memorial College of Delhi University.

Moreover, a website for the Training Division of Delhi Police was launched on Wednesday.

Aimed at facilitating information exchanged between the faculty and trainees at Police Training Institutes of Delhi Police, the website provides training syllabus, study material, sample question papers as well as manuals for aspiring and serving police personnel.

Patnaik applauded the efforts of Training Division in using technology to reach out to a large number of police personnel, which is essential to update and keep up with the changes in law.

The development of infrastructure which will cater to the training of a large batch of 7,000 constables in a very short span of time was also appreciated by him.

Amulya Patnaik at the launch of 'Nipun' on Wednesday PIC/NAVEEN SHARMA

Amar ujala, New Delhi

Thursday, 15th November 2018; Page: 5

Width: 6.74 cms; Height: 19.51 cms; a4; ID: 22.2018-11-15.33

दिल्ली पुलिस आयुक्त ने किया निपुण

वेबसाइट का उद्घाटन

नई दिल्ली। दिल्ली पुलिस ने स्मार्ट पुलिसिंग की ओर एक और कदम बढ़ाया है। दिल्ली पुलिस आयुक्त अमूल्य पटनायक ने पुलिस मुख्यालय में बुधवार को निपुण वेबसाइट का उद्घाटन किया। इस वेबसाइट से पुलिस अधिकारियों को जांच करने में सहायता मिलेगी। पुलिस व जांच से संबंधित कोर्ट के सभी आदेश इस वेबसाइट पर उपलब्ध होंगे। सभी ट्रेनिंग कार्यक्रम भी वेबसाइट पर होंगे। दिल्ली पुलिस की डीसीपी सुमन नलवा के अनुसार, वेबसाइट तैयार करने में करीब एक वर्ष का समय लगा। इसमें यूजीसी, दिल्ली विश्वविद्यालय, राष्ट्रीय मानवाधिकार आयोग, जेडीएम कॉलेज आदि संस्थाओं का सहयोग लिया गया। ब्यूरो

दिल्ली पुलिस आयुक्त ने की 'निपुण' वेबसाइट की शुरुआत

नई दिल्ली (एसएनबी)। पुलिसकर्मियों को ध्यान में रखते हुए बुधवार को दिल्ली पुलिस आयुक्त अमूल्य पटनायक ने निपुण नाम की वेबसाइट लांच की। इस वेबसाइट के माध्यम से दिल्ली पुलिस अधिकारियों व पुलिसकर्मियों को अपने काम के लिए जरूरी सभी जानकारी मिलेगी।

वेबसाइट की मदद से पुलिसकर्मी जान सकेंगे काम काज के तरीके

इसके साथ ही पुलिस आयुक्त ने पुलिसकर्मियों के प्रशिक्षण के लिए भी वेबसाइट शुरू की।

डीसीपी सुमन नलवा ने बताया कि इस वेबसाइट के लिए एक साल से काम चल रहा था। इसमें यूजीसी, डीयू, फिक्की, राष्ट्रीय मानवाधिकार आयोग, जेडीएम

कॉलेज आदि जैसी संस्थाओं का सहयोग क्लैप योजना के तहत लिया गया। उन्होंने बताया कि जांच अधिकारियों को कई बार स्टैंडिंग आर्डर, सुप्रीम कोर्ट एवं हाईकोर्ट के आदेश, जांच के दौरान ध्यान देने वाली बातें आदि प्रमाणिक तौर पर एक जगह नहीं मिलती हैं। डीसीपी ने बताया कि अलग अलग मामलों की जांच के दौरान 100 तरह के फार्म की जरूरत पड़ती है। इसके लिए जांच अधिकारी भटकते हैं। अब यह सब एक ही वेबसाइट पर उपलब्ध होगा। उन्होंने बताया कि समय के साथ साथ जरूरत पड़ने पर अन्य सुविधाएं भी इस वेबसाइट में जोड़ी जाएंगी।

अमूल्य पटनायक ने प्रशिक्षण के लिए भी वेबसाइट शुरू की। इसपर प्रशिक्षण के लिए विभिन्न प्रकार के कोर्स, माडल प्रश्न पत्र, कम्प्युनिकेशन स्किल आदि उपलब्ध रहेंगे। इस मौके पर कार्यक्रम में विशेष पुलिस आयुक्त राजेश मलिक, एस निथ्यनंदम, ताज हसन, संदीप गोयल, संजय सिंह, विवेक गोगिया सहित संयुक्त पुलिस आयुक्त एवं डीसीपी मौजूद थे।

Delhi Police introduces e-learning site 'Nipun'

By Mail Today Bureau
in New Delhi

WITH the aim to introduce advanced technology for imparting in-service training, Delhi Police commissioner Amulya Patnaik has launched the e-Learning portal of Delhi Police called 'NIPUN' on Wednesday.

The portal will give online training and information through specialised courses designed by experts in the field of law, standing orders, investigation checklists, forms for case files and the latest Supreme Court and High Court rulings.

"The flexibility of conducting classes anytime and anywhere will now help police personnel to upgrade their skills and reinforce their learning while balancing training time with work. Based on the feedback and training needs, the courses will be tailored to meet the needs of our investigating officers," Patnaik said.

Delhi police commissioner Amulya Patnaik has launched the portal.

Delhi Police claimed that many of the courses have been developed in-house while others have been through collaboration with UGC, FICCI, NHRC, NCPCR, Janaki Devi Memorial College and Delhi University.

"The website provides the training syllabus, study material, sample question papers, manuals, and much more. This will give online access to police personnel undergoing their basic training for relevant information," Patnaik said.

"The website will not only provide information but also act as a tool for feedback mechanism and bridge communication gap," he said.

Further, the infrastructure development to cater the training of a large batch of seven thousand constables in a very short span of time was appreciated.

Statesman, Delhi

Thursday, 15th November 2018; Page: 2

Width: 37.81 cms; Height: 37.42 cms; a3r; ID: 8.2018-11-15.18

Delhi Police training portal launched

STATESMAN NEWS SERVICE

NEW DELHI, 14 NOVEMBER

Delhi Police Commissioner Amulya Patnaik launched the e-learning portal of Delhi Police called "NIPUN" at the police headquarters on Wednesday.

The portal aims to give online training and information through specialised courses designed by experts. With online resources like law, standing orders, investigation checklists, forms for case files, latest High Court and Supreme Court rulings being made available online, investigating officers will be able to get the benefit of this information during the course of their duty.

Many of the courses have been developed in-house while others have been through collaboration with University Grants Commission, FICCI, NHRC, NCPDR and Janaki Devi Memorial College, Delhi University under the project "The Collaborative Learning and Partnership". The Delhi Legal Service Authority also consented to be partner in developing specific courses for Delhi Police. The website of Training Division of Delhi Police was also launched.

The police chief applauded the efforts of the Training Division in using technology to reach out to a large number of police personnel. Appreciating the Training of Trainers Course on Yoga, Patnaik emphasised the importance of Yoga in everyday living, especially for police personnel. Specials Commissioners of Police Rajesh Malik, S Nithianandam, Taj Hassan, Sandeep Goel, RS Krishnia, SK Gautam, Sanjay Singh, Vivek Gogia, Nuzhat Hassan, RP Upadhyaya, Virender Singh, Satish Golchha, Joint Commissioners and DCPs were present.