

Plea in NHRC to open Kalindi Kunj route

A Noida resident has approached the National Human Rights Commission, urging it to take cognisance of the fact that the Kalindi Kunj route has remained out of bounds for 37 days. Mayank Raj (24), whose workplace is in Faridabad, has written to NHRC saying that the closure of such a crucial link was infringing on the rights of the common man. TNN