Year later, victims of violence say not able to move on

KOLKATA, NORTH 24 PARGANAS, PASCHIM MEDINIPUR, MAY 4

ONE FAMILY is planning to leave West Bengal, another is in debt, many have not been able to shrug off a boycott despite leaving politics, while others have not been able to return to the homes they left in fear.

A year after the state was swept by violence following the Assembly election results of May 2, 2021, the victims, many of them BJP supporters, continue to live under its shadow. An NHRC probe, ordered by the Calcutta High Court, had found the Trinamool Congress government guilty of letting the violence continue. The court had also ordered a CBI probe, which is still on.

On Thursday, to mark a year after the elections and to express solidarity with the BJP victims of violence, Union Home Minister Amit Shah will be visiting the state for the first time since the results. Around the same time, TMC chief and West Bengal Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee will be addressing a party meeting where she is likely to emphasise that the coming panchayat polls and the Lok Sabha elections of 2024 should not be marked by violence.

A look back at four cases of violence following the results:

■ Joy Prakash Yadav, 28, killed in North 24 Parganas

A known BJP supporter, Yadav was hit by a crude bomb in front of his house in Bhatpara, Barrackpore, in North 24 Parganas district, on June 6 last year. Mother Rajmati Devi, 59, who was with Yadav when he was attacked and as he died, says she is hoping for a job for Yadav's wife Sangeeta, who has two young children to support. Sangeeta recently travelled with a group to Delhi to meet Shah; she returned hopeful that a job might finally materialise.

Once it does, says Devi, they will leave Bengal. "We will stay wherever she is posted."

The family received Rs 5 lakh aid from the BJP but Sangeeta says what they need is a job. "My husband was the only earning member (he worked with a real estate company), I am surviving on the mercy of others." Devi named Tuntun Choudhury, Animesh Pal, Mahisda resident Haradhaan Maal says he was socially boycotted by TMC leaders after the election result. Partha Paul Chandan Singh and Lallan Singh in her complaint. Choudhury and Pal were arrested, of whom only Pal remains in custody. The FIR was filed on charges of murder.

TMC Jagdal Town president Jitu Shaw says the BJP used the incident for its benefit. "The case had nothing to do with political rivalry."

■ Rape of a 60-year-old

On the night of May 4-5, 2021, alleged TMC men attacked the woman at her home and one of them raped her, as her five-year-old grandson hid under a cot. Also forced to ingest some poison, the victim spent more than a month in hospital. The family was believed to have been attacked for supporting the BJP. The son-in-law says while the BJP took care of the hospital costs, they did not get the relief promised by it. "Had to take care of a lot of the expenses and have a debt of Rs 2.5 lakh."

BJP MLA Santanu Pramanik, whom the son-in-law claims to have met, told The Indian Express: "Several victims have not got compensation due to errors in bank account numbers or other issues. We intend to help all." The family says it also lives on the edge as two of the accused remain absconding. Police arrested Muhammed Usman and Subrata Kumar Das, but never caught Gautam Das and Sukanta Das.

Local TMC leader Partha Pratim Das says he does not want to speak on the issue as it is sub-judice. "We maintain that the case is false."

■ Social boycott of Opp workers in Paschim Medinipur

After the polls, leaflets surfaced in Mahisda village of Paschim Medinipur naming 18 Opposition workers and ordering a social boycott, allegedly distributed by TMC workers. A year later, most of those named have distanced themselves from political activities, but say they are still kept out of government schemes.

Primary teacher Dibyendu Mondol, a CPM worker whose name was on the list, says he decided to avoid politics for mental peace. "But former Opposition workers like us can't avail of schemes like the NREGA or 'Banglar Bari' (PMAY)," he says. Mondol and Panchu Maal were the only two CPM supporters on that list, the rest being BJP workers.

Around a year back, one of the BJP workers, Haradhaan Maal, wrote a letter to the TMC accepting his "mistake" and "seeking pardon". However, says Maal, apart from him, his wife Bandana no longer gets any MNREGA work.

Among those determined to not "give in" are Harishadhan Dolui, 50, and son Gurupada, 24. While Harishadhan is in the CPM, Gurupada is with the BJP. "I told TMC leaders that you may kill me but I cannot quit the CPM. For almost 15 days, I was locked inside," Harishadhan says.

While news of the social boycott led to the arrest of four TMC workers — Sujash Pramanik, Pintu Chakraborty, Rabin Das and Manas Bhuiyan — all are out on bail. Sujash says the allegations are false. "We never threatened anyone. It was a CPM conspiracy."

TMC Keshpur block president Uttamananda Tripathi says: "I have not received any complaint that Opposition workers and their family members are not benefiting from government schemes. If I do, I will take action."

■ Properties damaged at Jadavpur, South Kolkata

Their houses on KPC Medical College grounds in Jadavpur ransacked, around 35 families fled the area, and are yet to return home.

An NHRC team that visited the area on June 29 was also chased out, allegedly by TMC supporters. "We cannot even think of returning," says Raja Das (35), a former Group D employee at KPC Medical College, now living in a rented home. This is his 12th rented house since he left on May 3, 2021, hopping from place to place.

The KPC Medical College colony housed either employees of the college or their family members. Amit Dey, his wife Megha and their four-year-old son were among those who fled. Amit works as an assistant with a private doctor. Megha says she does not want to talk to the media. "Everyone forgot us, even the party for whom we fought and lost everything. We are on our own."

Their advocate Sanjay Das, a member of the BJP's legal cell, says he still has faith in judiciary. Swapan Naiya, an active BJP worker of the area, admits the help provided by the BJP is not enough.

Local TMC leader Alok Dev says those who fled were afraid of the public. "Before the elections, they harassed common people. They realised that if they return, they would not be spared... Our party never disturbed them."

Teenaged rape survivor raped again in UP police station, SHO arrested

MANISH SAHU

LUCKNOW, MAY 4

A 13-YEAR-OLD Dalit rape survivor in Uttar Pradesh was allegedly raped again by the Station House Officer (SHO) of a police station in Lalitpur district where she had gone to file a complaint against four men for kidnapping and gangraping her last month.

The police have lodged a case against six people, including the SHO and the girl's aunt, after the incident came to light when the girl narrated her ordeal to members of a child helpline. The SHO was suspended, following a complaint lodged by the girl's mother on Tuesday, and arrested on Wednesday.

The case triggered heated reactions from the Opposition, with Congress leader Priyanka Gandhi Vadra saying in a series of tweets that reforms needed in law and order were being "suppressed in the noise of bulldozers" — a reference to the state government's demolition drive against history sheeters.

The Samajwadi Party called for strict action against the guilty, and said that its chief Akhilesh Yadav visited the rape survivor's family and "assured them of all help".

Taking suo motu cognizance of media reports on the incident, the National Human Rights Commission issued notices to the UP Chief Secretary and DGP calling for a report within four weeks. The girl, who is a school student, is the daughter of a farmer and currently in the custody of the Childline Welfare Committee. "All six accused, including the SHO and the victim's aunt, have been arrested. The SHO has been arrested from Prayagraj," said ADG (Kanpur Zone) Bhanu Bhaskar. The four accused men and the aunt are neighbours of the victim.

The ADG has directed DIG (Jhansi Range) Jogendra Kumar to conduct an inquiry "into the entire matter" and submit a report in 24 hours. Lalitpur SP Nikhil Pathak has shunted out all police personnel from the police station linked to the case and attached them with Reserve Police Lines. "The action has been taken to ensure that no one influences the probe," said a senior police officer.

According to the mother's complaint, the four men allegedly kidnapped her daughter on April 22 and took her to Bhopal. It states that they stayed in Bhopal for three days when the girl was allegedly raped. According to the complaint, the men allegedly left the girl at the police station on April 26, following which the police handed her over to her aunt. The complaint stated that a day later, the police called the girl to the police station to record her statement — and that in the evening, the aunt took her to the SHO's room where he allegedly raped her. "Once again, the girl was handed back to her aunt, and her parents were allegedly kept in the dark. On April 30, the police handed the girl over to the Childline team for counselling and she narrated her ordeal," a senior officer said.

On Tuesday, the girl and her parents, with assistance from officials, met senior police officers. A case has been lodged on charges of rape, criminal conspiracy and kidnapping, and on sections under the POCSO Act and SC/ST Act.

"The case has been filed on the sequence of events provided by the girl's mother. We are verifying all details," said a police officer.

"It is part of our investigation to find out why the rape case was not filed when the victim reached the police station the first time (April 26)," SP Pathak said.

Police sources said that during preliminary inquiry, the location of the four youths was found to be in Jaipur after they allegedly kidnapped the girl. "Medical examination of the victim has been conducted and the report is awaited. Her statement has also been recorded before a magistrate," SP Pathak said.

Water crisis forcing women to leave their in-laws house in Nasik village, NHRC takes cognisance

<https://www.thestatesman.com/india/water-crisis-forcing-women-leave-laws-house-nasik-village-nhrc-takes-cognisance-1503068147.html>

The National Human Rights Commission has taken a sou motu cognizance of media reports claiming that newly married brides unable to cope with the extreme situation of water shortage is leaving their in-laws' houses in Dandichi Bari village of Nasik district in Maharashtra.

"The women have to walk a kilometre and a half every summer, from March to June, to fetch water from a nearly dry stream at the bottom of a hill taking a lot of time and patience to fill the pots. Reportedly, families now hesitate to get their daughters married off to men from this village," the Human Rights body said.

The Commission has observed that this amounts to a gross violation of their basic human rights i.e. Right to Life and Dignity.

"It seems that in spite of several efforts being made by the government agencies and announcement of various schemes to provide potable water, the relief is still away from this particular village," commented the NHRC.

NHRC quoted a media report published on May 2 in which it was claimed that "the filling one-pot may take three hours and women have to walk a hilly terrain in odd hours twice a day to fetch water first in the morning at 4.00 AM and again after the sunset to avoid the scorching heat. The new brides are often not able to cope with the horrible situation."

"They are so daunted by the extreme water scarcity that they do not want to stay in the village and return to their maternal homes," it added.

Meanwhile, the sarpanch of the village, quoted in the said media report, accused the administration of inaction even after being aware of the grave situation that exists in the village.

"The village Sarpanch, reportedly said that many babus and journalists visit the village and take photographs of the suffering of the villagers but no one helps," NCRC said.

Taking cognizance of the matter, the commission has issued notice to the Chief Secretary of the Maharashtra government and Secretary of the Union Ministry of Jal Shakti seeking a detailed report on the matter within six weeks.

The commission said that the report should include the steps being taken or proposed to be taken to redress the grievance of the residents of this village and the present status regarding the availability of drinking water in the area.

NHRC seeks action taken report on death of a transgender in Sri Jagannath temple

<https://www.uniindia.com/story/NHRC-seeks-action-taken-report-on-death-of-a-transgender-in-Sri-Jagannath-temple>

The National Human Rights Commission (NHRC) has sought for Action Taken Report (ATR) on the death of a transgender in Sri Jagannath temple, Puri. Acting on a petition filed by Human Rights Activist Radhakanta Tripathy, the Apex rights body sought the report from Puri District Collector and Superintendent of Police of Puri, the Secretary, Department of Women & Child Development and Mission Shakti of Odisha government. Tripathy in his petition stated that on May 1 last transgender Balaram Rout (36), a resident of Nimapara jumped from the gumuta of the shrine. Rout sustained grievous injuries, after falling from a height of around 30 feet. The cause of death has been shrouded under mystery. Tripathy alleged that there is no welfare board for the transgenders who are deprived of many benefits under social welfare schemes. They live miserably with social boycott and ostracisation. Stating the death in Puri Shree Jagannath Temple is very serious, Tripathy contended since the temple is managed by the State Government, adequate police and security are not deployed and precautionary measures are not adopted by the administration. Failure and negligence of Police and inaction by Social Justice department and Temple Administration had resulted in the death of a transgender for the first time in the history of the world famous temple amounts to serious violation of human rights. Earlier pursuant to NHRC notice on Tripathy's petition, the Government of India constituted National Council for Transgender Persons, on August,21,2020. This is the first statutory body working for the welfare of transgenders in India. Subsequently, the NHRC formulated and issued an Advisory for Protection of the Rights of LGBTQI Community on 16th October 2020 covering various aspects like food, education, protection, financial help, etc. for strict compliance by the centre and states. Tripathy urged the NHRC for an independent and impartial investigation of the case and sought a direction for adequate compensation to the family members of the deceased, implementation of the Act and Supreme Court judgement for the welfare of the transgenders. Bengaluru: Acid attack victim undergoes second surgery, has long battle ahead

<https://www.newindianexpress.com/cities/bengaluru/2022/may/05/bengaluru-acid-attack-victimundergoes-second-surgery-has-long-battle-ahead-2449851.html>

A week after the horrific acid attack by her spurned stalker, Aasha (name changed) underwent a second surgery on Wednesday. The surgery took three and a half hours, while her first surgery on Saturday lasted eight hours, Aasha's uncle Sundresh said. This could be the beginning of a series of surgeries to set Aasha on the path to recovery. As acid attack survivor Dr Mahalakshmi Y N says, "Treatment is a very long battle, and she has to stay patient and confident."

She herself had to undergo 22 reconstructive surgeries in one-and-a-half years, after the attack on January 11, 2001. Dr Mahalakshmi, who plans to meet Aasha, said, "Laws and government are supportive of the victim now. At one point, she has to depend on her own self." She recalled that she was 30 years old when a similar attack had left her with 55 per cent disability, affecting her left ear, eye and hand severely. "But I focused on my goal, and chose to heal the pain of people to forget my pain."

I treat at least 60 to 70 patients a day in a government health care centre. My daughter, who was four years old when the incident occurred, is now taking civil service exams. The attitude of people towards acid attack victims has not changed. We don't want sympathy, we need to be allowed to live our lives," she said. Advocate Sumithra Acharya, who is doing research on 'Reintegration and Rehabilitation of Acid Attack Victims' under an NHRC project, said, "Acid attack victims still face a delay in getting benefits. Of 80 victims in the State, only 38 get pension."

माननीयों की आंखों का पानी सूखने का नतीजा है दांडीची का जल संकट, अब आयोग के नोटिस से कुछ हो पाएगा?

<https://navbharattimes.indiatimes.com/india/water-crisis-of-dandichi-is-result-miserable-government-will-anything-happen-after-notice-of-nhrc/articleshow/91331043.cms>

नासिक के गांव दांडीची बारी (Dandichi Bari) का जल संकट (Water crisis) रूह कंपा देने वाला है। यह माननीयों की आंखों का पानी सूखने का नतीजा है। हालात इतने गंभीर हैं कि कई नई दुल्हनें स्थिति का सामना करने में असमर्थ होकर मायके लौट जाती हैं। जल संकट के चलते इन महिलाओं को पानी लाने के लिए बहुत दूर जाना पड़ता है। महाराष्ट्र (Maharashtra) के ही कुछ एक गांव में महिलाएं जान जाखिम में डालकर थोड़े से पानी के लिए 50 फीट गहरे कुएं में उतरने तक को मजबूर हो जाती हैं। यह और बात है कि शासन-प्रशासन के आंख-कान बंद हैं। अब इस पर राष्ट्रीय मानवाधिकार आयोग (NHRC) ने संज्ञान लिया है। उसने महाराष्ट्र सरकार और केंद्रीय जल शक्ति मंत्रालय को नोटिस जारी किया है। आयोग ने कहा है कि महिलाओं को हर गर्मियों में मार्च से जून तक एक पहाड़ी के तल पर लगभग सूख चुकी धारा से पानी लाने के लिए डेढ़ किलोमीटर पैदल चलना पड़ता है। इसमें काफी समय लगता है। देखना होगा कि आयोग के नोटिस के बाद क्या स्थितियों में कोई बदलाव होगा।

एनएचआरसी ने कहा है कि नौबत यह है कि कई परिवार गांव के पुरुषों से अपनी बेटियों की शादी करने से हिचकिचा रहे हैं। दांडीची बारी गांव में गंभीर जल संकट के कारण ग्रामीणों को पानी की एक-एक बूंद के लिए रोजाना संघर्ष करना पड़ रहा है। आयोग के मुताबिक, अगर मीडिया में आई खबर सही है, तो यह उन लोगों के मूल मानवाधिकारों का घोर उल्लंघन है।

महाराष्ट्र के कई गांवों में पानी की किल्लत से लोग परेशान हैं। दांडीची बारी भी उनमें से एक है। इस गांव में लगभग 300 लोग रहते हैं। यह गांव नासिक से लगभग 90 किमी दूर सुरगना तालुका में पड़ता है। इस गांव का नाम सुनकर लड़की वाले डर जाते हैं। इस गांव में कोई अपनी लड़की नहीं ब्याहना चाहता है। गांव में महिलाओं को बूंद-बूंद पानी के लिए संघर्ष करना पड़ता है। यहां के युवाओं के लिए सुखी वैवाहिक जीवन सपने जैसा है। एक मटका पानी के लिए महिलाओं को कई किलोमीटर दूरे चलना पड़ता है।

गर्मी में हालात विकराल हो जाते हैं। तापमान सामान्यता 40 डिग्री सेल्सियस को छू जाता है। कई-कई घंटे बिताकर थोड़े से पानी का इंतजाम हो पाता है। सूखी धारा से पानी लाने को डेढ़ किलोमीटर तक पैदल चलना पड़ता है। पथरीले इलाके में चलकर पानी के श्रोत तक पहुंचने तक ही संघर्ष खत्म नहीं होता है। अलबत्ता चट्टान की गुहा में पानी भरने के लिए घंटों इंतजार करना पड़ता है।

यहां पानी है खजाना

2008-09 में तीन विवाहित महिलाओं ने पानी की कमी से उकताकर अपनी शादी के कुछ दिनों के भीतर ही गांव छोड़ दिया था। आज नौबत यह है कि परिवार अपनी बेटियों की शादी गांव के पुरुषों से करने से हिचकिचाते हैं। पानी की जद्दोजहद के लिए महिलाएं साथ में अलाव या टॉर्च लेकर भी चलती हैं। इससे जंगली जानवरों से उनकी सुरक्षा हो। यहां पानी ही खजाना है।

खड़ी पगडंडी से निपटने के लिए महिलाओं को सिर पर पानी के दो घड़े के साथ हाथ में टॉर्च रखनी पड़ती है।

फिलहाल यह साफ है कि उनकी समस्या की सुध किसी ने नहीं ली है। सबके सब कान में रुई डालकर बैठे हैं। यह बात इसलिए भी कही जा सकती है क्योंकि यह समस्या सालों साल पुरानी है। महाराष्ट्र सरकार और केंद्रीय जल शक्ति मंत्रालय को मानवाधिकार आयोग की नोटिस के बाद यह देखना होगा कि यहां स्थितियों में कोई बदलाव आता है कि नहीं।

यह है मामला

ललितपुर के थाना पाली क्षेत्र निवासी किशोरी को 22 अप्रैल को चार स्थानीय लोग बहलाकर अपने साथ ले गए थे। उसे भोपाल ले जाकर चारों ने दुष्कर्म किया। 23 अप्रैल को एसपी से मां ने शिकायत की। 26 अप्रैल को चारों किशोरी को उसकी मौसी गुलाबबाई के घर ले गए। वहां से थाने लाए। पुलिस ने बच्ची को माता-पिता के बजाए मौसी को सौंप दिया। 27 अप्रैल को इंस्पेक्टर ने किशोरी को बुलाया और थाने में दुष्कर्म किया। एसपी ने छानबीन शुरू कराई तो 30 अप्रैल को इंस्पेक्टर ने पीड़िता को चाइल्ड लाइन के सुपुर्द कर दिया। जहां किशोरी ने आपबीती बयां की। इसके बाद मामले का खुलासा हुआ।

डीआईजी ने जांच शुरू की

थाने में महिला सिपाहियों के होने के बावजूद खुद पूछताछ की। उसे नियम विरुद्ध रात भर थाने में रखा। इन सभी बिंदुओं और एफआईआर के आरोपों के मद्देनजर डीआईजी सघन जांच कर रहे हैं। एडीजी भानु भास्कर ने बताया कि बेहद गंभीर मामला है। डीआईजी झांसी जांच कर रहे हैं। पांच आरोपित जेल भेजे गए हैं। फरार इंस्पेक्टर गिरफ्तार कर लिया गया है। सख्त से सख्त कार्रवाई की जाएगी।

NHRC NOTICE TO UP GOVT, DGP

UP: Minor gang-rape victim, who went to file complaint, raped by SHO

MPOST BUREAU

LALITPUR (UP): A 13-year-old girl who was allegedly raped by four men over three days was sexually assaulted again by the SHO of a police station where she had been left by her attackers, police said on Wednesday. SHO Tilakdhari Saroj, the main accused in the case, has been arrested from Prayagraj, officials said on Wednesday. Earlier, five people were arrested and an FIR filed against six. Besides, all the other policemen of the station have been taken away from active duty and sent to police lines. Deputy Inspector General (DIG), Jhansi, Jogen-dra Kumar has been asked to probe the matter and submit the report within 24 hours, officials said. The NHRC on Wednesday sent notices to the Uttar Pradesh government and the state police chief regarding the incident. Taking suo motu cognizance of a media report, the National Human Rights Commission (NHRC) observed that the contents of the report, if true, amount to human rights violations of the victim. Continued on P4

Gang-rape victim

In a statement, it said the NHRC has taken suo motu cognizance of a media report that a 13-year-old girl was raped by the in-charge of the police station in the Lalitpur district of Uttar Pradesh when she went there to get an FIR registered about her gangrape.

As chilling details of the case came to light, the opposition Samajwadi Party and Congress highlighted the vulnerability of women and asked where they should go to file their complaint and whom should they trust.

Deputy Chief Minister Brajesh Pathak, however, said strict action will be taken and the stringent National Security Act will be slapped against the accused.

According to the mother of the multiple-rape survivor, her daughter was taken to Bhopal, about 240 km from here, on April 22 by four men and raped there for three days. The men left the girl at the Pali police station, where she was again sexually attacked, she alleged.

The girl narrated her ordeal during counselling at an NGO, which approached the Superintendent of Police. Following his intervention, an FIR was registered on Tuesday.

ADG (Law and Order) Prasant Kumar added in Lucknow that the DIG has been told to stay in Lalitpur till the case is solved.

"While the SHO has been suspended, all policemen of Pali police station in Lalitpur have been sent to police lines," said Additional Director General of Police, Kanpur Zone, Bhanu Bhaskar.

The Samajwadi Party attacked the Yogi Adityanath-led Uttar Pradesh government over the incident, and said: "The biggest question in the BJP government is whom to trust and whom to not. A minor who reached the police station to file rape complaint was raped by the SHO himself."

"Now the CM should say, where should the victim's daughters go? Security of the victim should be ensured and strict action should be taken against those found guilty," the party said in a tweet in Hindi.

SP chief Akhilesh Yadav is expected to visit Lalitpur to meet the rape survivor's family.

Hitting out at the state government in a series of tweets, Congress leader Priyanka Gandhi Vadra said: "The incident of gangrape with a 13-year-old girl in Lalitpur and then rape by police officer after taking a complaint shows how the real reforms of law and order are being suppressed under the noise of 'bulldozer'. If police station are not safe for women, where will they go with their complaints?"

"Has the UP government seriously thought about increasing the deployment of women in police stations, making them safer for women? The Congress party had in its women's manifesto made many important points for women security. Today its Lalitpur...", she said.

To prevent such incidents, serious steps should be taken for women's safety and a women-friendly law system, she added.

Deputy Chief Minister Brajesh Pathak said strict action will be taken against the accused.

"The matter will be taken up in a fast track court and action will be so strict against the policemen involved that even their next generations will cry out in pain. The NSA will also be invoked against them and no one will be spared," Pathak told reporters in Lucknow.

Asked about politics being played over the case, Pathak said: "I want to ask the opposition not to politicise criminal matters. She (victim) is our daughter and if wrong was done against her the government is committed to take action and will not spare anyone at any cost."

On Akhilesh Yadav's visit to Lalitpur, Pathak mockingly said: "He (Yadav) thinks if something happens, he can start his political tourism."

The police said an FIR was lodged under various sections of the IPC, including 363 (kidnaping), 376 (rape), 376 B (intercourse by public servant with woman in his custody), 120 B (conspiracy), POCSO Act and SC/ST Act.

The NHRC has issued notices to the Maharashtra government and the Union Jal Shakti ministry over reported acute water crisis in a Nasik village, which has forced women to walk long distances to fetch water, so much so that many new brides return to their parental homes unable to cope with the situation.

The National Human Rights Commission (NHRC) in its statement on Wednesday said that women have to walk a kilometer and a half every summer, from March to June, to fetch water from a nearly dry stream at the bottom of a hill, which takes a lot of time. Reportedly, families now hesitate to get their daughters married off to men from this village, it said.

“The NHRC has taken suo motu cognisance of a media report that due to acute shortage of water in Dandichi Bari village in Nasik district of Maharashtra, the villagers have to struggle daily for a drop of water,” the statement said.

The commission has observed that the content of the media report, if true, amounts to gross violation of their basic human rights that is right to life and dignity.

It seems that in spite of several efforts being made by government agencies and announcement of various schemes to provide potable water, the relief is still away from this village, the rights panel said in the statement.

Accordingly, the NHRC has issued notices to the chief secretary, the government of Maharashtra and the secretary, Union Ministry of Jal Shakti, seeking a detailed reports within six weeks.

The reports should include the steps being taken or proposed to be taken to redress the grievance of the residents of the village and present the status regarding availability of drinking water in the area, it said.

According to the media report, carried on May 2, filling of one pot may take three hours and women have to walk on a hilly terrain in odd hours twice a day to fetch water first in the morning at 4 am and again after sunset to avoid the scorching heat, the statement said.

New brides are often not able to cope with the horrible situation, according to the report. They are so daunted by the extreme water scarcity that they do not want to stay in the village and return to their maternal homes. "The village sarpanch, reportedly said that many babus and journalists visit the village and take photographs of suffering of the villagers but no one helps," it said. PTI KND ANB ANB

Nashik: Extreme water crisis forces newly-married women to leave houses; NHRC takes note

<https://www.indiatvnews.com/news/india/nasik-water-crisis-newly-married-women-leave-homes-maharashtra-village-water-shortage-nhrc-2022-05-05-774300>

Locals, especially the newly-married brides are unable to cope with the severe water crisis this Maharashtra village faces. According to some media reports, the water shortage has led to an extreme situation, to an extent that brides are leaving their in-laws' houses in Dandichi Bari village of Nashik district. The matter has now come to National Human Rights Commission's attention.

"The women have to walk a kilometer and a half every summer, from March to June, to fetch water from a nearly dry stream at the bottom of a hill taking a lot of time and patience to fill the pots. Reportedly, families now hesitate to get their daughters married off to men from this village," the Human Rights body said.

The Commission has observed that this amounts to a gross violation of their basic human rights i.e. Right to Life and Dignity.

"It seems that in spite of several efforts being made by the government agencies and announcement of various schemes to provide potable water, the relief is still away from this particular village," commented the NHRC.

NHRC quoted a media report published on May 2 in which it was claimed that "the filling one-pot may take three hours and women have to walk a hilly terrain in odd hours twice a day to fetch water first in the morning at 4.00 AM and again after the sunset to avoid the scorching heat. The new brides are often not able to cope up with the horrible situation."

"They are so daunted by the extreme water scarcity that they do not want to stay in the village and return to their maternal homes," it added.

Meanwhile, the sarpanch of the village, quoted in the said media report, accused the administration of inaction even after being aware of the grave situation that exists in the village.

"The village Sarpanch, reportedly said that many babus and journalists visit the village and take photographs of the suffering of the villagers but no one helps," NCRC said.

Taking cognizance of the matter, the commission has issued notice to the Chief Secretary of the Maharashtra government and Secretary of the Union Ministry of Jal Shakti seeking a detailed report on the matter within six weeks.

The commission said that the report should include the steps being taken or proposed to be taken to redress the grievance of the residents of this village and the present status regarding the availability of drinking water in the area.

Samajwadi Party president Akhilesh Yadav on Wednesday met the family of the 13-year-old gang-rape survivor in Lalitpur and demanded adequate security to them, while calling the police stations in Uttar Pradesh "centres of anarchy".

The minor was allegedly raped by four men over three days and was sexually assaulted again by the SHO of a police station where she had been left by her attackers, police said.

"I met the mother of the gang-rape survivor. The family said they want security and legal help, and demanded strict action against those who committed such a crime. The family wants justice," Yadav told reporters after meeting the family.

"The family needs help from the government. They need security otherwise they will not be able to fight for justice," he said, adding that his party will extend legal aid and if required any other kind of help to the family members.

The accused station house officer (SHO) in the case was arrested from an area near the Allahabad High Court on Wednesday, police said, adding that five others, including the girl's aunt and the four men who had lured her to Bhopal and raped her, have also been held.

All the other policemen of the Pali station in Lalitpur district have been taken away from active duty and sent to police lines.

Sources said the Samajwadi Party (SP) president faced police resistance to enter the district hospital to meet the victim's family.

Taking a dig at Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath over the incident, Yadav alleged, "The walls of the chief minister's residence are so thick that he cannot hear the cries of people. He also hit out at the state police."

"What is the police -- which should be giving security and ensuring justice --doing today in the state? 'Thana' (police stations) have become centres of anarchy under the BJP government. Where are the 'pink police' for the security of women? Will the 'bulldozers' be used on the police stations that are turning into 'crime scenes'?" he asked.

The SP chief further said what more can be expected from the police which has been used to win elections -- be it panchayat polls or the recent elections of legislative council members -- in Uttar Pradesh.

He said his party will raise the issue in the state assembly.

Yadav also alleged that Uttar Pradesh tops the list in custodial deaths, and that maximum NHRC notices are being served to the state police and the government.

SHO rapes gangrape survivor who went to police station to lodge FIR

Accused cop on run

PNS ■ LUCKNOW

A 13-year-old gangrape survivor, who had gone to file her complaint, was allegedly raped by the in-charge of a police station in Lalitpur.

Accused Station House Officer Tilakdhari Saroj has been suspended and a case has been registered against half a dozen persons, including the cop, at the Pali police station. Saroj, who was on the run, was arrested in Prayagraj, confirmed ADG Prayagraj, Prem Prakash. Three of the other accused have been held.

Reports said on Tuesday, the girl's father lodged an FIR, alleging that his daughter was lured to Bhopal by four men — Chandan, Rajbhan, Harishankar, and Mahendra Chaurasia — on April 22 and was gangraped for four days.

He said the teenager somehow escaped and reached home and went to the police to file a complaint where the SHO raped her before handing her over to the Childline Welfare Committee.

When the teenager was questioned by the Childline officials, she narrated the whole incident, after which the Childline Welfare Committee reached out to the Lalitpur Superintendent of Police.

Following this, the SP

immediately registered a case of gangrape against six people, including the SHO.

The National Human Rights Commission (NHRC) has issued notices to the Chief Secretary, the DGP and the Government of Uttar Pradesh seeking a report within four weeks.

Meanwhile, sources confirmed that when the victim reached Pali police station, her aunt was called to pick her up and told to bring the girl back the next day to record her statement. The aunt did not tell the girl's parents of her whereabouts and instead took her back to the police station the next day, where SHO Saroj took the girl to a separate room and raped her, the FIR says. The girl's aunt has also been named in the FIR.

Lalitpur police said they have charged the SHO for rape and under the POCSO (Protection of Children from Sexual Offences) Act.

"The SHO has been suspended and he is a named criminal so teams have been formed to arrest him. An NGO brought girl to my office. She had given them details. After I was informed of it, I ensured that a case was registered," Lalitpur district police chief Nikhil Pathak said in a statement. Other police officers posted at police station have also been removed from duty and a DIG-level officer will be investigating case, claimed another senior officer.

Meanwhile, Congress general secretary Priyanka Gandhi Vadra attacked Yogi Adityanath Government over Lalitpur incident and claimed that truth of prevailing law and order situation in UP has been concealed under so-called bulldozer propaganda.

"If police stations are not safe for women then where would they go to seek justice?" she asked. She also asked Government whether they were serious about increasing presence of women cops in police stations or forwarding justice to fairer sex or Mission Shakti was another propaganda of Bharatiya Janata Party like all other slogans.

भक्षक बने रक्षक पर गिरी सरकारी गाज

किशोरी रेप मामले में विपक्ष हमलावर, सरकार ने भी की बड़ी कार्रवाई।

लखनऊ ■ नया इंडिया ब्यूरो
योगी सरकार की अपराध और भ्रष्टाचार पर जोरा टॉलरेंस की नीति के बावजूद शायद कुछ शैतानों को अभी इसका डर नहीं है। तभी तो वो ऐसी धिनोनी हरकत करने की हिमाकत कर रहे हैं। वहरहाल सरकार भी ऐसे दुष्टों को बिल्कुल भी माफ करने नहीं जा रही है। इसी के चलते सीएम योगी के निर्देश पर तत्काल कड़ी कार्रवाई जारी है।

उत्तर प्रदेश के ललितपुर जिले के पाली थाने थानेदार पर लगे 13 वर्षीय किशोरी के साथ रेप करने के संगीन और धिनोने आरोप के बाद प्रदेश की राजनीति बेहद गरमा गयी है। पूरा विपक्ष सरकार पर हमलावर है। पूर्व मुख्यमंत्री अखिलेश यादव पीड़ित बालिका के परिवार से मिलने गए हैं, वहीं कांग्रेस महासचिव प्रियंका गांधी वाड्वा ने ट्वीट कर सरकार पर सवाल दागे हैं। प्रियंका ने आरोप लगाया कि बुलडोजर के शोर में कानून व्यवस्था में असली सुधार की जरूरत को दबा

दिया गया है। प्रियंका ने पूछा कि जब थाने में ही बंदी सुरक्षित नहीं तो फिर वो कहाँ शिकायत लेकर जाए ?

दूसरी ओर योगी सरकार भी इस मामले में पूरी सख्ती से कार्रवाई करती दिखाई पड़ रही है। पाली थाने के आरोपी थानेदार को सस्पेंड करके उसकी तत्काल गिरफ्तारी के आदेश

जारी कर दिए गए। एडीजी कानपुर ने थानेदार सहित 6 अन्य के खिलाफ मुकदमा दर्ज करा दिया है। खबर लिखे जाने तक इसमें से मुख्य आरोपी थानेदार सहित 4 की गिरफ्तारी हो चुकी है जिसमें एक महिला भी है। साथ ही पूरे थाने को लाइन हाजिर कर दिया है।

मामले पर बयान देते हुए एडीजी एलओ प्रशांत कुमार ने कहा कि घटना पर डीआईजी झांसी को मौके पर पूरी घटना के राजफाश होने तक ललितपुर रुकने को कहा गया है। एडीजी एलओ ने कहा कि घटना में किसी को भी बख्शा नहीं जाएगा। गम्भीर धाराओं में एफआईआर हुयी है। सभी आरोपियों की गिरफ्तारी के लिए टीमें लगी हुई हैं।

खबर लिखे जाने तक मिली जानकारी के अनुसार मुख्य आरोपी पूर्व थाना इंचार्ज तिलकधारी सरोज को पुलिस टीम ने प्रयागराज में गिरफ्तार कर लिया है। एडीजी प्रयागराज जॉन प्रेम प्रकाश द्वारा दी गयी जानकारी के अनुसार पूर्व एसओ की तलाश में कोशाम्बी, बांदा और प्रयागराज में ताबड़तोड़ छापेमारी की गयी। इसी कड़ी में आरोपी पूर्व एसओ पुलिस की प्रयागराज टीम के हाथों दबोच गया है। वहरहाल मामला बेहद संगीन है और इस मामले पर यूपी की राजनीति भी बेहद गरम है। सत्तारूढ़ भाजपा जहाँ त्वरित कार्रवाई के नाम पर अपना बचाव कर रही है, वहीं विपक्ष पर वर्तमान सरकार के रक्षकों के ही भक्षक बनने की बात कह कर सरकार को निशाने पर लिए है।

ललितपुर बलात्कार मामला : मुख्य आरोपी दरोगा प्रयागराज से गिरफ्तार

प्रयागराज/लखनऊ, 4 मई (भाषा)।

अपर पुलिस महानिदेशक प्रेम प्रकाश ने बताया, 'बलात्कार के आरोपी के संबंध में हमें सुबह कानपुर जोन के एडीजी से सूचना मिली थी। उसी के आधार पर हमने कार्रवाई शुरू की और जहां-जहां उसके मोबाइल की लोकेशन मिली, आरोपी को उन जगहों पर तलाशा गया।' उन्होंने बताया कि आरोपी बार-बार अपना मोबाइल बदल रहा था इस कारण उसे बांदा, फिर चित्रकूट में भी तलाश गया और अंततः उसे प्रयागराज से गिरफ्तार किया गया।

Teenaged rape survivor raped again in UP police station ...

<https://indianexpress.com/article/cities/lucknow/up-cop-who-sexually-assaulted-13-year-old-rape-survivor-arrested-7901657/>

A 13-YEAR-OLD Dalit rape survivor in Uttar Pradesh was allegedly raped again by the Station House Officer (SHO) of a police station in Lalitpur district where she had gone to file a complaint against four men for kidnapping and gangraping her last month.

The police have lodged a case against six people, including the SHO and the girl's aunt, after the incident came to light when the girl narrated her ordeal to members of a child helpline. The SHO was suspended, following a complaint lodged by the girl's mother on Tuesday, and arrested on Wednesday.

The case triggered heated reactions from the Opposition, with Congress leader Priyanka Gandhi Vadra saying in a series of tweets that reforms needed in law and order were being "suppressed in the noise of bulldozers" — a reference to the state government's demolition drive against history sheeters.

The Samajwadi Party called for strict action against the guilty, and said that its chief Akhilesh Yadav visited the rape survivor's family and "assured them of all help".

Taking suo motu cognizance of media reports on the incident, the National Human Rights Commission (NHRC) issued notices to the UP Chief Secretary and DGP calling for a report within four weeks.

The girl, who is a school student, is the daughter of a farmer and currently in the custody of the Childline Welfare Committee. "All six accused, including the SHO and the victim's aunt, have been arrested. The SHO has been arrested from Prayagraj," said ADG (Kanpur Zone) Bhanu Bhaskar. The four accused men and the aunt are neighbours of the victim.

The ADG has directed DIG (Jhansi Range) Jogendra Kumar to conduct an inquiry "into the entire matter" and submit a report in 24 hours.

Lalitpur SP Nikhil Pathak has shunted out all police personnel from the police station linked to the case and attached them with Reserve Police Lines. "The action has been taken to ensure that no one influences the investigation," said a senior police officer.

According to the mother's complaint, the four men allegedly kidnapped her daughter on April 22 and took her to Bhopal in Madhya Pradesh. It states that they stayed in Bhopal for three days when the girl was allegedly raped.

According to the complaint, the men allegedly left the girl at the police station on April 26, following which the police handed her over to her aunt. The complaint stated that a day later, the police called the girl to the police station to record her statement — and that in the evening, the aunt took her to the SHO's room where he allegedly raped her.

“Once again, the girl was handed back to her aunt, and her parents were allegedly kept in the dark. On April 30, the police handed the girl over to the Childline team for counselling and she narrated her ordeal,” a senior officer said.

On Tuesday, the girl and her parents, with assistance from officials, met senior police officers. A case has been lodged on charges of rape, criminal conspiracy and kidnapping, and on sections under the POCSO Act and SC/ST Act.

“The case has been filed on the sequence of events provided by the girl’s mother. We are verifying all details,” said a police officer.

“It is part of our investigation to find out why the rape case was not filed when the victim reached the police station the first time (April 26),” SP Pathak said.

Police sources said that during preliminary inquiry, the location of the four youths was found to be in Jaipur after they allegedly kidnapped the girl.

“Medical examination of the victim has been conducted and the report is awaited. Her statement has also been recorded before a magistrate,” SP Pathak said.

Targeting the Yogi Adityanath government, Priyanka Gandhi tweeted in Hindi, asking “if police stations are not safe for women, where will they go for complaints?” She asked if the UP government has given serious thought to “increase deployment of women in police stations, to make police stations safe for women”.

The Samajwadi Party tweeted in Hindi that “the biggest question in the BJP government is whom to trust and whom not to”. “A minor, who came to file a rape complaint, was raped by the SHO... Now the CM should tell where victim daughters should go. Ensure security for the victim and take strict action against those found guilty,” it said.

SHO accused of raping Dalit teen girl in UP held: Police

KANPUR: A local police officer in Uttar Pradesh's Lalitpur district was arrested on Wednesday on charges that he raped a 13-year-old girl who came to the police station to lodge a complaint of gang-rape against four other people. Authorities also suspended all 29 people posted at the police station where the alleged rape took place.

ADGP (Kanpur) Bhanu Bhaskar said the local SHO, Tilakdhari Saroj, was arrested near the Allahabad high court. Police also arrested five others in the case, the chilling details of which emerged after the victim narrated her ordeal to a non-governmental organisation, which approached the SP. After his intervention, an FIR was registered on Tuesday.

Authorities also suspended six sub-inspectors, six head constables, five women constables, 10 constables and two drivers who were present at the police station when the alleged rape took place and asked the deputy inspector general of police (Jhansi) Joginder Kumar to conduct an inquiry and submit a report in 24 hours.

The FIR in the case said the victim, who belonged to a scheduled caste community, was lured by four men — Chandan, Raj Bhan, Mahendra Chaurasia and Hari Shankar — on April 22. On the same day, they took her to Bhopal, where she was kept in a house near the railway station. The girl was allegedly gang-raped for three days before being brought back to her village on April 26, added the FIR, a copy of which is with HT.

On April 23, her mother lodged a missing persons complaint with the police.

The investigation has revealed that the four accused accompanied by the survivor's aunt had dropped the girl at the police station on April 26. The accused ensured the SHO gave the custody to aunt and not the family. The SHO did not send the girl for medical examination nor informed her mother.

SHO Tilakdhari Saroj has denied the allegations and has said that he is innocent. AGENCIES

Saroj asked the aunt to bring the victim again to the police station on April 27 for recording her statement, said police. On April 27, the SHO called the girl to his chamber where she was allegedly raped again. Thereafter, she was handed over to the aunt.

On April 30, the police called the victim again and gave her custody to NGO Childline. During one of the sessions with the counsellor, the victim told her ordeal. The counsellor informed the district child welfare officer, who in turn informed SP (Lalitpur) Nikhil Pathak about the crime.

Five of the accused were arrested on Wednesday. Three of them — Chandan, Raj Bhan and the victim's aunt — were arrested in Lalitpur while two others — Hari Shankar and Mahendra Chaurasia — were arrested from Madhya Pradesh, said Bhaskar.

Seven police teams conducted raids in five states — Madhya Pradesh, Delhi, Haryana, Rajasthan and parts of Uttar Pradesh — to arrest Saroj, who was absconding after the Lalitpur Police charged him with rape.

The police lodged cases under IPC Sections 363 (kidnapping), 376 (rape) 376 B (rape by public servant with woman in his custody), 120B (conspiracy), Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Act and the Scheduled Caste and Scheduled Tribe Prevention of Atrocities Act. Investigators said the girl was initially abducted on April 22 to prevent her from testifying in favour of her father in an old dispute involving Hari Shankar's family.

The girl's father was a complainant in the case and the victim was to appear before a court on April 25 for her testimony.

The officers quoted above said Chandan, who was known to the girl's family, lured her away and took her to Bhopal. "The accused will be taken on remand for questioning," said a senior police officer. The officers said the four accused pressured Saroj to give custody of the victim to her aunt, who was working with the accused, instead of her parents.

On April 27, the girl's parents were alarmed when they saw the key accused roaming in the village while their daughter was still missing. They then approached senior officers again. The incident also sparked a political tussle, with Opposition parties attacking the state government. "The biggest question in the BJP government is whom to trust and whom to not. A minor, who reached the police station to file a rape complaint, was raped by the SHO. Now, the CM should tell where should the victim daughters go? Security of the victim should be ensured and strict action should be taken against those found guilty," the Samajwadi Party said in a tweet.

In the evening, SP president Akhilesh Yadav met the victim's family in Lalitpur and assured them of justice.

Congress leader Priyanka Gandhi Vadra said, "The incident of gang-rape with a 13-year-old girl in Lalitpur and then rape by a police officer after taking the complaint shows how the real reforms of law and order are being suppressed under the noise of bulldozer. If police stations are not safe for women, where will they go with their complaints?"

Deputy chief minister Keshav Prasad Maurya said that all the people in the case have been arrested and the case is being investigated. "The case has been solved, it is clear who were the criminals," he said.

13-YEAR-OLD IDENTIFIED ALL THE PLACES WHERE SHE WAS RAPED, SAY COPS

KANPUR: The 13-year-old rape survivor has identified all the locations in Lalitpur and other areas where she was sexually assaulted by the station house officer (SHO) Tilak Dhari Saroj and other accused persons, police said on Wednesday.

Police said that the probe team will be taking the girl to Bhopal to identify the locations there also.

The girl was medically examined under tight security at the Lalitpur district hospital on Wednesday.

After that, forensics experts accompanied her to the locations, said a senior police official.

She identified the police station and the inspector's chamber where she was raped as well as the point from where she was taken away by the four accused before that, the official said.

In a bid to evade arrest, the Pali SHO had also conspired to hand over the minor to the Childline NGO instead of her parents, said people aware of the developments.

"So far, it appears that the accused SHO was in league with the accused. He did not act on the family's complaint and kept misguiding the seniors," a police official on the condition of anonymity said.

"Like the other accused, the SHO will also be taken on remand after being produced in court. He was arrested by a police team in Prayagraj on Wednesday," said a senior officer on the condition of anonymity.
