

NHRC takes note of senior citizen suicide

NHRC, India took suo moto cognisance of a media report that a 72-year-old man committed suicide on Dec 25, as the State Government-run Kidwai Memorial Institute of Oncology in Bengaluru, Karnataka declined to provide him Rs 5 lakh cover under the Ayushman Bharat Pradhan Mantri Jan Arogya Yojana (AB PM-JAY) for which he had enrolled himself. Reportedly, the hospital denied him the benefit of the scheme to the senior citizens stating that the State government orders in this regard had not arrived yet.

National Human Rights Commission (NHRC)'s 4-week in-person Winter Internship - 2024, for post-graduate-level students concluded

"61 students drawn from 18 States and 2 Union Territories have undergone this internship physically rather than online, which is very welcome. This is because, in online classes you may learn many things but not interpersonal skills and development of human relationships", said NHRC Chairperson Justice V Ramasubramanian

"I am happy to see that 80% of the interns are girls. Historically, many women have spearheaded the human rights movement in many countries. Take for instance USA. It was a British colony until 1765. In 1776 the Declaration of Independence is made and Jefferson remarked all men are born equal. But it took 90 years after independence for them to abolish slavery through the Emancipation proclamation ", he said addressing the valedictory session

In 1863 the proclamation was made and it got into the Constitution in 1865. Though slavery was abolished, segregation continued and segregation laws were even upheld by Supreme Court. It took a further period of 90 more years for the segregation laws to be declared unconstitutional. It happened in 1956", he said
