BJP takes up Brahmin students' discrimination with the National Human Rights Commission

STATESMAN NEWS SERVICE
BENGALURU, 25 APRIL

The opposition BJP has taken up the alleged caste-based discrimination of Brahmin students when attending the Common Entrance Test, when two students were allegedly forced to remove their sacred thread, with the National Human Rights Commission.

State leader of opposition in the Assembly, R Ashoka, said on Friday that he has filed a formal complaint with the Commission in which he alleged that infringement of religious freedom had taken place during CET and that action must be taken against those found guilty.

Already, the state government has acted swiftly, and the concerned education department officials have been suspended, and the issue is being investigated.

But the BJP has taken this up in a big way. Ashoka took to the social media platform X where he claimed in a post that several students were forced to remove religious symbols l— sacred thread during the examination. "On 23 April, I have filed a complaint with the National Human Rights Commission about the incidents of infringement of personal beliefs by Government of Karnataka in which students were compelled to remove their sacred religious symbols such as Janivara (Yagnopavita), Shivadara etc during the Common Entrance Test (CET) examination at several centres across the State," he said in his post.

The BJP leader urged the Commission to take immediate and appropriate action.

"I have appealed to the Commission to take prompt and appropriate action to safeguard the rights and dignity of citizens, especially the youth, whose future should not be jeopardised by such unlawful and discriminatory practices," he said. On Saturday, a student, Suchivrat Kulkarni, alleged that his entry was denied at the Karnataka Common Entrance Test exam centre on 17 April at Sai Spoorthi PU College in Bidar because he was wearing the sacred thread (Janeu).

Gurudatta Hegde, Deputy Commissioner of Shivamogga, stated that an investigation has been initiated and an FIR has been registered.

मुर्शिदाबाद में प्रशासनिक व्यवस्था पूरी तरह से चरमराई, महिलाएं दहशत में: एनसीडब्ल्यू रिपोर्ट

भाषा। नई दिल्ली

राष्ट्रीय महिला आयोग (एनसीडब्ल्यू) ने शुक्रवार को कहा कि पश्चिम बंगाल के मुर्शिदाबाद जिले में प्रशासनिक व्यवस्था और शासन पूरी तरह से चरमरा गया है। आयोग ने कहा कि क्षेत्र की महिलाएं दहशत में हैं। वक्फ (संशोधन) अधिनियम के खिलाफ प्रदर्शन के दौरान 11 और 12 अप्रैल को मुर्शिदाबाद जिले के शमशेरगंज, सुती, धुलियान और जंगीपुर में हुई हिंसा में तीन लोगों की मौत हो गई थी। राष्ट्रीय महिला आयोग की अध्यक्ष विजया रहाटकर की अध्यक्षता वाली जांच समिति ने अपनी रिपोर्ट में एटिप्पणियां की हैं, जिन्होंने मुर्शिदाबाद के हिंसा प्रभावित क्षेत्रों का दौरा किया था। एनसीडब्ल्यू ने कहा कि राज्य के समर्थन के अभाव में कई विस्थापित महिलाओं को अब अधिक असुरक्षित स्थिति और अपने मान सम्मान की

हानि का सामना करना पड़ रहा है।

समिति ने अपनी रिपोर्ट में कहा कि उसने पाया कि मुर्शिदाबाद जिले में प्रशासनिक मशीनरी और शासन व्यवस्था पूरी तरह से ध्वस्त हो गई है।

एनसीडब्ल्यू ने एक बयान में कहा, पूर्व खुफिया जानकारी और क्षेत्र में तनाव के बावजूद, राज्य सरकार निवारक या प्रतिक्रियात्मक कार्रवाई करने में विफल रही, और मूकदर्शक बनी रही। ऐसा प्रतीत होता है कि हिंसा जानबूझकर और पूर्वनिर्धारित थी...। उसने कहा, बांग्लादेश के साथ लगती सीमा के कई स्थानों पर खुले होने तथा प्रशासनिक सतर्कता में कमी के कारण स्थिति और खराब हो गई है, तथा क्षेत्र में कट्टरपंथी धार्मिक तत्वों की उपस्थिति से इनकार नहीं किया जा सकता है। आयोग ने आरोप लगाया कि पश्चिम बंगाल सरकार मूकदर्शक बनी रही और स्थिति को अराजकता में तब्दील होने दिया। बयान में कहा गया है कि 19 अप्रैल

को मुख्यमंत्री ममता बनर्जी द्वारा शांति अपील के बावजूद उन्होंने प्रभावित क्षेत्रों का दौरा नहीं किया है और न ही पीड़ितों से मुलाकात की।

आयोग ने आरोप लगाया कि जांच के दौरान राज्य के अधिकारियों का रवैया असहयोगात्मक रहा, वरिष्ठ अधिकारी सुनवाई में उपस्थित नहीं हुए तथा स्थानीय प्राधिकारियों ने कोई सार्थक सहायता नहीं दी। एनसीडब्ल्यू ने कहा कि मालदा जिले में रहत शिविरों में क्षमता से अधिक लोग हैं और वहां संसाधनों की कमी है। उसने कहा, रहत शिविरों में, विशेषकर मालदा जिले में, स्थिति गंभीर है। वहां भोजन, कपड़े, पेयजल, स्वच्छता और चिकित्सा सहायता जैसी बुनियादी सुविधाओं का अभाव है। राज्य सरकार न्यूनतम रहत भी प्रदान करने में विफल रही है, जिससे पहले से ही सदमे में रह रहे परिवारों को संकट और अनिश्चितता की स्थिति का सामना करना पड़ रहा है।

1,351 child marriages stopped last yr in 416 dists

Ambika.Pandit@timesofindia.com

New Delhi: An analysis of data compiled from 416 districts in 23 states by a collective of voluntary organisations shows that as many as 1,351 child marriages were stopped and over 1.22 lakh prevented through legal interventions in 2024-25.

As many as 779 FIRs were registered in cases where marriage could not be stopped with the maximum cases (170) filed in Bengal followed by Tamil Nadu

(146) and Bihar (114).

The data collated by 'Just Rights For Children' (JRC)-a network of over 250 organisations shows that of the 1,351 cases where marriages were stopped across the 23 states, legal interventions involved making a general diary entry in the police stations record (737 cases), intervention of the Child Welfare Committees (593 cases) and through an injunction order from the courts (21 cases).

In over 1.22 lakh cases, mostly where information regarding a family planning to marry their underage daughter was received, marriage was prevented by taking undertakings from the parents and guardians before govt authorities like police, sub divisional magistrate, child marriage prohibition officer or panchayat member.

Besides this in a little more than 66,000 cases undertakings were taken from parents where a prospective child marriage was being planned in villages through persuasion by community social workers associated with the JRC network.

The data comes ahead of 'Akshay Tritiya' when a lot of child marriages are usually solemnised in the garb of mass marriages and which will be observed on April 30 this year. In fact, the National Human Rights Commission has alerted states to step-up action to prevent child marriage and look out for vulnerable out-of-school girls ahead of 'Akshay Tritiya'.

National Human Rights Commission (NHRC) member Priyank Kanoongo has asked state authorities to issue instructions to the school administration to review current statistics on school drop-outs and re-enrol them.

"The appointment and sensitisation of designated child marriage prohibition officer may be ensured by the state and Union Territories" Kanoongo said in a letter sent out to all chief secretaries and to the Union govt.

STATESMAN NEWS SERVICE

BHUBANESWAR, 25 APRIL

The National Human Rights Commission (NHRC) has sought for Action Taken Report (ATR) from the District Collector of Sundargarh on alleged illegal conversion of more than 1000 acre of forest land.

The FRA rights of the tribal families have been clandestinely snatched away by the corrupt local administration illegally, the petitioner adding that these tribals have become landless.

The National Human Rights Commission (NHRC) on Friday sought for action taken report from the district collector of Sundargarh on alleged illegal conversion of more than 1,000 acres of forest land.

The unlawful conversion of forest land has left around 1,088 tribal families in Kasada, Jhirdapali, S.Balang, Pithachore and Bhalupani gram panchayats landless, human rights lawyer Radhakanta Tripathy contended in a petition moved to the NHRC.

The FRA rights ensured to One thousand eighty eight Scheduled Tribe families have been clandestinely snatched away by the corrupt local administration illegally. Such illegal acts without the Authority of laws force these traditional forest dwellers, Scheduled Tribe families, to become landless.

The One thousand eighty eight Scheduled Tribe families living in the eighteen villages under Kasada, Jhirdapali, S.Balang, Pithachore and Bhalupani Gram Panchayats have been living as landless having no right over any land, the petition pointed out.

The biased action on part of authorities in converting forest land to other category without following due process of law also poses serious question of environment protection and the forest rights

The petition sought for the AI-powered Audit besides enquiry by higher officials to undo the act of illegality perpetrated by the district administration.

“The Commission is of the considered view that the allegations leveled in the complaint are serious violations of the Human Rights of the victims. Accordingly, the Registry is directed to send a copy of the complaint to the District Magistrate, Sundargarh, Odisha to examine the matter and send a report expeditiously within a period of 15 days” NHRC ruled in an order pronounced on Thursday.

BJP takes up 'discrimination' of Brahmin students with NHRC

LAKSHMANA VENKAT KUCHI | BENGALURU | April 25, 2025 7:41 pm

The Opposition BJP has taken up the alleged caste-based discrimination of Brahmin students during the Common Entrance Test with the National Human Rights Commission.

The two students were purportedly forced to remove their sacred thread during the test.

Leader of the Opposition in the Karnataka Assembly R Ashoka said on Friday that he has filed a formal complaint with the Commission alleging infringement of religious freedom during CET calling for action against those found guilty in the case.

The state government has already acted swiftly by suspending concerned Education Department officials and instituting an investigation into the matter.

However, not content with the government's action, the BJP has taken up the issue in a big way. Ashoka took to the social media platform X to claim that several students were forced to remove religious symbols — sacred thread during the examination.

"On 23rd April, I have filed a complaint with the National Human Rights Commission about the incidents of infringement of personal beliefs by Government of Karnataka in which students were compelled to remove their sacred religious symbols such as Janivara (Yagnopavita), Shivadara etc during the Common Entrance Test (CET) examination at several centres across the State," he said in his post.

The BJP leader urged the Commission to take immediate and appropriate action. "I have appealed to the Commission to take prompt and appropriate action to safeguard the rights and dignity of citizens, especially the youth, whose future should not be jeopardised by such unlawful and discriminatory practices.", he said.

On Saturday, a student, Suchivrat Kulkarni, alleged that his entry was denied at the Karnataka Common Entrance Test exam centre on April 17 at Sai Spoorthi PU College in Bidar because he was wearing the sacred thread (Janeu).

Gurudatta Hegde, Deputy Commissioner of Shivamogga, stated that an investigation has been initiated and an FIR has been registered.

बिहार के पूर्वी चंपारण पुलिस की कार्यशैली के खिलाफ राज्य मानवाधिकार आयोग और राष्ट्रीय मानवाधिकार आयोग में शिकायत की गयी है। पूर्वी चंपारण जिला के कुंडवा चैनपुर थाना के जटवलिया गांव बुजुर्ग कपिलदेव दुबे के घर पर 13 अप्रैल की रात लूटपाट व बम विस्फोट के मामले में पुलिस ने उन्हें व उनकी पत्नी मालती देवी को ही आरोपित बना दिया है। पुलिस पर आरोप है कि कपिलदेव दुबे की ओर से प्राथमिकी के लिए दिए गए आवेदन पर कोई कार्रवाई नहीं की गई और पुलिस ने अपने मन से पीड़ित को ही आरोपित बना दिया। वरीय अधिकारियों से शिकायत करने पर भी कोई कार्रवाई नहीं की गई।

पीड़ित परिवार ने पुलिस की कार्यशैली के विरुद्ध बिहार राज्य और राष्ट्रीय मानवाधिकार आयोग में अलग-अलग याचिका दाखिल की है। याचिका दाखिल करने में कानूनी सहायता दे रहे मानवाधिकार मामले के अधिवक्ता एसके झा ने बताया कि कपिलदेव दुबे ने अपनी पोती की शादी के लिए गहना, कपड़ा व बर्तन घर में रखा था।

कपिलदेव दुबे ने बताया कि दो महीने से वे अपने परिवार के साथ बाहर थे। इस बीच उन्हें जानकारी मिली कि 13 अप्रैल की रात लगभग 11 बजे गांव के कुछ लोगों ने उनके घर में लूटपाट की और बम विस्फोट किया। इसकी जानकारी मिलने पर जब वे घर पर आए तो आरोपितों के विरुद्ध प्राथमिकी दर्ज करने के लिए कुंडवा चैनपुर थाना में आवेदन दिया।

उन्होंने आरोप लगाया गया है कि कांड के असली आरोपितों के मेल में आकर पुलिस उनके आवेदन पर प्राथमिकी दर्ज नहीं की। उल्टे उन्हें और उनकी पत्नी के विरुद्ध ही प्राथमिकी दर्ज कर आरोपित बना दिया। इससे उन्हें मानसिक पीड़ा पहुंची है और बेवजह केस पर पैसा खर्च करना पड़ रहा है। उन्होंने इसकी शिकायत पूर्वी चंपारण के एसपी से की, लेकिन कोई नतीजा नहीं निकला। थक हारकर उन्हें मानवाधिकार आयोग की शरण में जाना पड़ा।

NHRC: पहलगाम में हुए आतंकी हमले को लेकर देश में आक्रोश है. इस हमले के बाद सरकार आतंकियों और उनके आकाओं को सबक सिखाने की तैयारी में जुट गयी है. केंद्र सरकार की ओर से कई कदम उठाए गए हैं. इस बीच राष्ट्रीय मानवाधिकार आयोग (एनएचआरसी) ने घाटी में छुट्टियां मनाने आए निहत्थे और मासूम नागरिकों पर हुए इस कायरतापूर्ण हमले की निंदा की है. आयोग ने कहा है कि इस घटना ने सद्भावन में विश्वास रखने वाले हर व्यक्ति की अंतरात्मा को झकझोर कर रख दिया है और यह पीड़ितों तथा उनके परिवारों के मानवाधिकारों के उल्लंघन का एक गंभीर मुद्दा है.

आयोग ने कहा है कि विभिन्न मंचों पर बार-बार कहा गया है कि आतंकवाद दुनिया में मानवाधिकारों के उल्लंघन के सबसे बड़े कारणों में से एक है. आतंकवाद को बढ़ावा देने और उसका समर्थन करने वालों के विरुद्ध कार्रवाई करने और इस खतरे के लिए उन्हें जवाबदेह ठहराने का समय आ गया है. गौरतलब है कि पहलगाम में हुए आतंकी हमले में धर्म के आधार पर 28 लोगों को जान गंवानी पड़ी है. इस हमले के बाद सरकार की ओर से पाकिस्तान के खिलाफ सख्त कदम उठाए गए हैं.

आतंकवाद लोकतंत्र के लिए गंभीर खतरा

मानवाधिकार आयोग का कहना है कि आतंकवाद पर अगर रोक नहीं लगायी गयी तो यह लोकतंत्र को कमजोर करेगा. धमकी, प्रतिशोध, समुदायों के बीच सद्भाव और जीवन, स्वतंत्रता, समानता, बंधुत्व और आजीविका के अधिकार सहित विभिन्न मानवाधिकारों का गंभीर उल्लंघन हो सकता है. आयोग ने उम्मीद जतायी है कि राज्य जवाबदेही तय करने के लिए सभी आवश्यक कदम उठाएगा और अपराधियों को कानून के दायरे में लाएगा और पीड़ित परिवारों को हरसंभव सहायता प्रदान करेगा. आयोग का कहना है कि आतंकवाद दुनिया के सामने मानवाधिकार के लिए सबसे बड़ा खतरा है.

आतंकवाद में शामिल लोगों की जवाबदेही तय होनी चाहिए और कानून के अनुसार ऐसे लोगों के खिलाफ कार्रवाई की जानी चाहिए. समय आ गया है कि आतंकवाद में शामिल, इसे बढ़ावा देने और समर्थन करने वालों को कानून के दायरे में लाया जाए ताकि आम लोगों के मानवाधिकार को सुनिश्चित किया जा सके.

New Delhi: The NHRC on Friday condemned the Pahalgam terror attack and said the time has come to act against those indulging in terrorism, "directly or indirectly". The National Human Rights Commission (NHRC) said it was "deeply disturbed" by the news of the terror attack, and hoped "the state will take all necessary steps to fix accountability" and "bring the perpetrators to justice". In a strongly-worded statement, the rights body also said that the time has come to act against those who are "aiding, abetting, supporting and advancing terrorism and to hold them accountable for this menace against humanity".

Terrorists struck at a prime tourist location in Pahalgam in Anantnag district on Tuesday, killing at least 26 people, mostly tourists, and injuring several others. The NHRC said it "condemns the dastardly attack on the unarmed and unsuspecting innocent civilians who were on a holiday to the Valley". The attack, the worst in the Valley since the 2019 Pulwama strike, has drawn condemnation from several countries, with top world leaders extending their solidarity to India and condolences to the victims' families. "The incident has shaken the conscience of every right thinking human being as a serious issue of violation of human rights of the innocent victims and their families," the NHRC said in the statement. It has been said time and again at various fora that "terrorism is one of the biggest causes of human rights violations in the world", the rights body said. "The time has come to act against those aiding, abetting, supporting and advancing terrorism and to hold them accountable for this menace. Otherwise, it may result in the shrinking of democratic space, intimidation, reprisals and grave violation of various human rights, including the right to life, liberty, equality, fraternity, and livelihood," it said. "It is expected that the state will take all necessary steps to fix accountability, bring the perpetrators to justice, and provide succour to the families of the victims in all possible manner," the NHRC said.

Karnataka LoP files NHRC complaint over alleged religious rights violation during CET

Ashoka claimed that several students were forced to remove sacred religious symbols such as the Janivara (Yagnopavita) and Shivadara.

Leader of the Opposition in the Karnataka Legislative Assembly, R Ashoka on Friday said that he has filed a formal complaint with the National Human Rights Commission (NHRC) alleging infringement of religious freedoms during the recent Common Entrance Test (CET) conducted across the State.

In his post on X, Ashoka claimed that several students were forced to remove sacred religious symbols such as the Janivara (Yagnopavita) and Shivadara at various examination centres during the CET.

He stated, "On 23rd April, I have filed a complaint with the National Human Rights Commission about the incidents of infringement of personal beliefs by Government of Karnataka in which students were compelled to remove their sacred religious symbols such as Janivara (Yagnopavita), Shivadara etc during the Common Entrance Test (CET) examination at several centres across the State."

He urged the Commission to take immediate and appropriate action to protect the rights and dignity of the affected students.

"I have appealed to the Commission to take prompt and appropriate action to safeguard the rights and dignity of citizens, especially the youth, whose future should not be jeopardised by such unlawful and discriminatory practices.", he stated.

On Saturday, a student, Suchivrat Kulkarni, alleged that his entry was denied at the Karnataka Common Entrance Test exam centre on April 17 at Sai Spoorthi PU College in Bidar because he was wearing the sacred thread (Janeu).

Speaking to ANI, Kulkarni said that he urged the Karnataka government to conduct a re-examination. "I had my Mathematics CET exam on 17th April. When I reached the exam centre, the college management checked me and saw my Janeu. They asked me to cut it or remove it, only then would they allow me to appear for the exam. For 45 minutes, I kept requesting them, but finally I had to come back home...I demand that the government conduct a re-examination or provide me a seat in the government college," Kulkarni said.

Neeta Kulkarni, mother of Suchivrat Kulkarni, said that the authority at the exam centre asked his son to cut the sacred thread (Janeu). "On 17th April, my son went for his exam, but there he was asked to cut the Janeu and remove it. My son said this is a sacred thread and I can't cut it. They told him if you don't remove the Janeu, we will not allow you to enter...He was not allowed to appear for his exam, and my son came back home," she said.

She further demanded that the Karnataka government conduct a re-examination for his son."I want the Government to either conduct a re-exam for my son or he should be admitted to a good college, and the fees should be taken care of by the Government or Sai Spoorthi PU College," she added.

Reacting to the matter, Gurudatta Hegde, Deputy Commissioner of Shivamogga, stated that an investigation has been initiated and an FIR has been registered.

"As you must be aware, three days ago, an incident was reported in Shivamogga. Basically, two of the students were stopped while entering the exam hall, citing that they were wearing a holy thread. We have inspected the matter in detail and collected all the CCTV footage. We have also heard student concerns and spoken to officers in the place. After this, we found out that two of the Home Guards who were looking after the security before entering the exam hall showed a lack of knowledge and made mistakes on their part. The security personnel have been insensitive to religious sentiments. On that ground, we have suspended two of the home guards, and an inquiry has been initiated against them. In this regard, FIR has also been registered. If any other person is found involved, we will take action," he added.

Meanwhile, Union Minister Pralhad Joshi on April 19 condemned the incident of removing the sacred thread (Janeu) from the student at the Karnataka CET exam centre.

"Yesterday, there was a Common Entrance Test (CET) in Karnataka. You can see the attitude of the pseudo-secular government in Karnataka. They asked some of the students to remove 'Janeu'...Some of the institutions have asked to remove that. And in one place, it is alleged that it was cut. It is very highly condemnable," Joshi had said while addressing reporters in Dharwad on April 19.

"The concerned authority has expressed regret and apologised. But what is the solution for the person who was not allowed to write the exam?... You have to find a solution," he added.

The BJP leader Keshav Prasad urged Karnataka Chief Minister Siddaramaiah to take strict action against the authorities.

"Nobody has the right to ask him to remove that, it is a religious belief and is faith, and it has to be respected. So this government, especially the Congress government, after coming to power, has given the power to the authorities to do all things, because of all this, he lost the writing examination. I urge Karnataka CM to take strict action on the authorities," he said.

Following the alleged incident, Karnataka Minister Dr MC Sudhakar called the 'Janeu' removal at CET centres "unfortunate" and assured that action would be taken.

"This incident is very unfortunate, which has happened not only in Shivamogga but also in Bidar. Everywhere it went on very smoothly except for two centres. The people who were checking or frisking for any gadgets, or even for whatever protocols were followed, were never given directions to check or remove it. This was not mentioned to be checked or removed to write the exam. We respect all the religions, their faith and deeds... We are not going to accept this, and we are going to take action," Sudhakar said.

LoP Ashoka moves NHRC over CET religious rights row

Bengaluru, Apr 25 (UNI) Leader of the Opposition in the Karnataka Assembly R Ashoka has approached the National Human Rights Commission (NHRC), alleging violation of religious freedom during the recently held Common Entrance Test (CET) in the State.

In a post on social media platform X, Ashoka claimed that several students were compelled to remove sacred symbols such as the Janivara (Yajnopavita) and Shivadara at various examination centres, terming the incidents a violation of personal faith and religious liberty.

"On April 23, I submitted a complaint to the NHRC regarding the infringement of personal beliefs by Karnataka government, where students were forced to remove sacred religious symbols during the CET at multiple centres," he stated.

Urging the Commission to take "prompt and appropriate action", Ashoka asserted that such actions could harm the dignity and future prospects of students.

The complaint follows an allegation made by Suchivrat Kulkarni, a student who claimed he was denied entry to the CET Mathematics examination at Sai Spoorthi PU College in Bidar on April 17 for refusing to remove his sacred thread. Kulkarni said he pleaded with authorities for 45 minutes but was eventually turned away.

"I requested them repeatedly, but they insisted I cut or remove the Janeu. I had to return home without appearing for the exam. I now seek either a re-examination or admission in a government college," he said.

His mother, Neeta Kulkarni, alleged that her son was denied entry solely on religious grounds and appealed to the government to ensure justice, including financial assistance for his further education.

Shivamogga Deputy Commissioner Gurudatta Hegde confirmed that an FIR had been registered in a similar case in the district. He said two home guards deployed at the CET centre had been suspended for behaviour deemed insensitive to religious sentiments.

"CCTV footage has been reviewed and statements collected from students and officials. The lapse was due to a lack of awareness among the personnel on duty. An inquiry is underway," he said.

Union Minister Pralhad Joshi had earlier condemned the incident, describing it as "highly objectionable". He said, "This reflects the mindset of a pseudo-secular government. Authorities must provide a solution for the affected student."

Meanwhile, Karnataka Higher Education Minister Dr MC Sudhakar termed the incident unfortunate, clarifying that there were no official instructions to remove religious symbols during the CET.

"This was not part of the examination protocol. We respect all faiths. Action will be taken against those found responsible," he said.

Sacred thread row: K'taka BJP moves NHRC against 'unlawful', 'discriminatory' practices

Bengaluru, April 25 (SocialNews.XYZ) Karnataka BJP has filed a complaint with the National Human Rights Commission over the sacred thread row, in which students wearing janviara/janeu were denied entry to write the Common Entrance Test (CET) in the state.

In his complaint, Leader of the Opposition in Karnataka Assembly R. Ashoka highlighted that while Hindu students wearing sacred threads were denied entry, Muslim girls wearing hijab were allowed to take up examinations.

Ashoka said, "I have filed a complaint with the National Human Rights Commission on Thursday about the incidents of infringement of personal beliefs by Government of Karnataka in which students were compelled to remove their sacred religious symbols such as Janivara (Yagnopavita), Shivadara etc during the Common Entrance Test (CET) examination at several centres across the state."

He appealed to the Commission to take prompt and appropriate action to safeguard the rights and dignity of citizens, especially the youth, whose future should not be jeopardised by such "unlawful and discriminatory" practices.

"I wrote to you with deep concern regarding a series of troubling incidents that have recently unfolded in the state of Karnataka, which have caused widespread distress among the Hindu community and, in our view, constitute clear violations of basic human and religious rights," Ashoka's complaint read.

Notably, during the recent Common Entrance Test (CET), other important competitive examinations, several Hindu students were reportedly compelled to remove sacred religious symbols such as the Janivara/Yajnopaveetha (sacred thread) and Shivadara (sacred threads with rudraksha beads).

Earlier, similar directives were allegedly issued in other examinations, wherein Hindu girls were asked to remove their mangalsutras, bangles, and anklets, he said.

Ashoka said these actions, undertaken without any legal mandate, violate the principles enshrined under the Constitution of India, particularly the right to freedom of religion (Article 25) and the right to dignity and privacy (Article 21). Moreover, they have had a detrimental psychological impact on students, interfering with their academic performance and mental well-being.

Notably, the Congress-led government in Karnataka has apologised for the issues and given orders to suspend the PU College Principal and staff. The government has also promised that the student, who was denied permission to appear for the exam, would be given justice.

Student barred from exam for wearing sacred thread

Karnataka Government offers re-test or average score

Janivara controversy sparks education policy debate

The Karnataka government has offered two alternatives to a student who was unable to write his Mathematics paper during the Common Entrance Test (CET) after he was allegedly denied entry for wearing the 'janivara' (sacred thread).

The government gave the student, Suchivrat Kulkarni, the option to either appear for the Mathematics paper afresh or accept an average score based on his marks in Physics and Chemistry for CET ranking purposes.

The incident occurred on April 16 at the Sai Spoorthi College examination centre in Bidar. According to complaints from Kulkarni's family and community members, the examination centre staff refused to allow him entry because he was wearing the 'janivara', a sacred thread traditionally worn by Brahmin men. The staff reportedly cited his attire as a reason for disqualification, prompting outrage from the student's relatives and wider community.

Leader of the Opposition in the Karnataka Legislative Assembly, R Ashoka, also raised the issue formally with the National Human Rights Commission. In a post on X, he said, "On 23rd April, I have filed a complaint with the National Human Rights Commission about the incidents of infringement of personal beliefs by Government of Karnataka in which students were compelled to remove their sacred religious symbols such as Janivara (Yagnopavita), Shivadara etc during the Common Entrance Test (CET) examination at several centres across the state."

He added, "I have appealed to the Commission to take prompt and appropriate action to safeguard the rights and dignity of citizens, especially the youth, whose future should not be jeopardised by such unlawful and discriminatory practices."

This was allegedly not an isolated case. Reports of similar incidents emerged from several other CET centres across Karnataka, where students were allegedly compelled to remove the sacred thread, before being allowed to sit the examination.

Two second-year Pre-University (PU) students at Aadichunchanagiri Independent PU College in Shivamogga, were allegedly compelled by security personnel to remove their sacred thread before entering the examination hall. One student complied, while the other protested. College staff intervened, allowing both to sit for the exam. Following public outcry and review of CCTV footage, two home guards involved were suspended.

Karnataka Deputy Chief Minister DK Shivakumar had deemed the incidents unacceptable, emphasising respect for religious symbols. Endowment Minister Ramalinga Reddy had urged the Centre to revise exam dress codes to accommodate religious sentiments.

Bengaluru: The Karnataka unit of BJP has moved the National Human Rights Commission (NHRC), alleging discrimination against Hindu students during the recent Common Entrance Test (CET). The party's complaint comes in the wake of reports that some students wearing janivara — a sacred thread — were barred from entering examination centres. Opposition leader R Ashoka, filed the complaint with NHRC Thursday, accusing the govt of violating students' rights by forcing them to remove sacred religious symbols. He alleged a biased approach toward Muslim students.

Citing religious discrimination, Ashoka pointed out that while Hindu students were reportedly denied entry, "Muslim girls wearing hijab were allowed to sit for the exams".

In his letter to NHRC, Ashoka urged immediate intervention. "I write with deep concern regarding a series of troubling incidents that have recently unfolded in the state of Karnataka, which have caused widespread distress among the Hindu community and, in our view, constitute clear violations of basic human and religious rights. It is also an infringement of personal beliefs as students were compelled to remove their sacred religious symbols at several centres across the state." Ashoka added that similar incidents had occurred in the past, where Hindu girls were asked to remove bangles, mangalsutras, and anklets during other competitive exams. "These actions, undertaken without any legal mandate, violate the principles enshrined under the Constitution of India, particularly the right to freedom of religion (Article 25) and the right to dignity and privacy (Article 21). Moreover, they have had a detrimental psychological impact on students, interfering with their academic performance and mental well-being," he said. He also appealed to NHRC to take "prompt and appropriate action to safeguard the rights and dignity of citizens, especially youth, whose future should not be jeopardised by such unlawful and discriminatory practices". In response to the controversy, the state govt had immediately issued an apology and announced disciplinary action. The principal and staff of the PU college involved were suspended. The govt also promised that the affected students would be served justice.

भाजपा ने सीईटी के दौरान 'जनेऊ' उतरवाए जाने के खिलाफ एनएचआरसी में शिकायत दर्ज कराई

यह परीक्षा 16 अप्रैल को आयोजित की गई थी।

कर्नाटक विधानसभा में नेता प्रतिपक्ष आर. अशोक ने अपनी शिकायत में इस घटना को प्रतियोगी परीक्षाओं के दौरान हिंदू छात्रों के साथ "चुनिंदा और भेदभावपूर्ण व्यवहार" करार दिया।

उन्होंने शुक्रवार को सोशल मीडिया पर शिकायती पत्र की एक प्रति साझा की।

अशोक ने दावा किया कि सीईटी और इसी तरह की अन्य परीक्षाओं के दौरान, कई हिंदू छात्रों के 'जनेऊ' और 'शिवदारा' (रुद्राक्ष की माला वाला धागा) जैसे धार्मिक प्रतीकों को हटाने के लिए मजबूर किया गया था।

अशोक ने यह भी आरोप लगाया कि पिछली परीक्षाओं के दौरान हिंदू लड़कियों से मंगलसूत्र, चूड़ियां और पायल उतारने को कहा गया था, जबकि मुस्लिम छात्राओं को बुर्का और हिजाब पहनकर परीक्षा देने की अनुमति दी गई थी।

उन्होंने कहा कि ये कानून के तहत समान व्यवहार के बारे में चिंता पैदा करता है।

In '24-'25, 1,351 child marriages stopped in 416 districts: Report

<https://timesofindia.indiatimes.com/india/in-24-25-1351-child-marriages-stopped-in-416-districts-report/articleshow/120600898.cms>

Ambika Pandit / TNN / Updated: Apr 25, 2025, 15:20 IST

A collective of voluntary organizations reports significant strides in combating child marriage in India. In 2024-25, over 1,351 child marriages were halted and over 1.2 lakh were prevented through legal and community interventions across 416 districts. West Bengal, Tamil Nadu, and Bihar recorded the highest number of FIRs in cases where marriages could not be stopped.

NEW DELHI: An analysis of data from 416 districts in 23 states by a collective of voluntary organisations shows that as many as 1351 child marriages were stopped and over 1.22 lakh prevented through legal interventions between April 1, 2024 to March 31 this year. As many as 779 FIRs were registered in cases where marriage could not be stopped with the maximum cases (170) filed in West Bengal followed by Tamil Nadu (146) and Bihar (114).

The data collated by 'Just Rights For Children' (JRC) - a network of over 250 organisations shows that of the 1351 cases where marriages were stopped across the 23 states, legal interventions involved making a general diary entry in the police stations record (737 cases), intervention of the Child Welfare Committees (593 cases) and through an injunction order from the courts (21 cases). In over 1.22 lakh cases, mostly where information regarding a family planning to marry their underage daughter was received, marriage was prevented by taking undertakings from the parents and guardians before govt authorities like police, sub divisional magistrate, child marriage prohibition officer or panchayat member.

Besides this in a little more than 66000 cases undertakings were taken from parents where a prospective child marriage was being planned in villages through persuasion by community social workers associated with the JRC network. This data yet again brings into focus the concern over prevalence of child marriage ahead of 'Akshay Tithi' to be observed on April 30. On this day a lot of child marriages are solemnised in the garb of mass marriages. Recognising the seriousness of the problem, the National Human Rights Commission has alerted states to step-up action to prevent child marriage and look out for vulnerable children particularly out of school girls ahead of 'Akshay Tithi'. NHRC member Priyank Kanoongo has asked state authorities to issue instructions to the school administration to review current statistics on school drop-outs and re-enrol them. He has further stated that religious institutions and local governing bodies within the state and UT may be directed to strictly prohibit from facilitating or promoting child marriage. "The appointment and sensitisation of designated child marriage prohibition officer may be ensured by the state and union territories" Kanoongo states in the letter sent out to all chief secretaries and marked to the secretary of the union ministry of women and child development.

Noting that the involvement of stakeholders like faith leaders is crucial in the fight to end child marriage in the country, Ravikant, national convenor of 'Just Rights for Children' "marking the occasion of Akshaya Tritiya, we've launched a campaign titled 'Bal Vivah ke Khilaf Dharam Guru' in more than 400 districts. Through this initiative, we are mobilizing faith-based leaders to speak out against child marriage." Last year from March a drive to identify children at risk of child marriage was conducted across states on the directions of the National Commission for Protection of Child Rights. The exercise revealed that over 11.49 lakh children across 27 states and 7 UTs most of them girls were found to be "vulnerable" as they had either dropped out of school, were out of school, or had been irregular or absent from school for long without any intimation to the school authorities.
