

Education failed to strengthen minds of students: NHRC chief

AGENCIES

Bhubaneswar, June 6: Education has failed to strengthen the minds of students, said National Human Rights Commission (NHRC) Chairman Justice V Ramasubramanian Friday.

Delivering a talk at Siksha 'O' Anusandhan (SOA) Deemed to be University here, he observed that most students today often say they are 'getting stressed out', a term rarely heard 40 years ago.

This, he noted, pointed to the fact that the current generation has been so pampered that it struggles to face any problems.

Justice Ramasubramanian emphasised that education should shape a student's character, expand their intellect, increase mental strength, and enable them to become self-reliant.

"The purpose of holistic education is to develop the character of a person while fostering their physical, mental, moral, and spiritual growth," the NHRC Chairman stated.

Quoting Swami Vivekananda, he highlighted that these four parameters — physical, mental, moral, and spiritual development — should guide education so that individuals can live happy and fulfilling lives.

"A person may complete a course, but no one can complete education — it extends from the womb to the tomb," Justice Ramasubramanian said.

Using several examples, the NHRC Chairman said the education system must equip students with character, mental strength, intellect, and self-reliance.

The NHRC Chairman cited philosopher and historian Will Durant's famous statement that education is 'the progressive discovery of one's ignorance', emphasising the importance of understanding this truth.

"We have many literate people, but are we truly educated?" he asked, noting that colleges and universities only introduce students to the world's knowledge.

"Today, success is all that matters. But we don't understand what true success is. Completing education or landing a big job does not mean success. Life does not view success as we do," the NHRC Chairman said.

Justice Ramasubramanian narrated the story of a 45-year-old chartered accountant in the USA, who lost everything during the 2008 Global Financial Crisis. Unable to cope, he killed his entire family before taking his own life.

"Despite his education and knowledge, he lacked the mental strength to face adversity," the NHRC Chairman said, adding, "Do colleges and universities teach students how to manage crises? People have degrees, but are they truly learned?"

The real need, Justice Ramasubramanian emphasised, is to provide people with the skills to face life and to teach them the right attitude.

"Today it is success which matters but we don't understand what true success is. Completing education or landing a big job does not mean success. Life does not look at success as we do," he said.

NHRC Chief On Holistic Education

By Tathya Correspondent - June 6, 2025

Bhubaneswar: Justice V. Ramasubramanian, Chairman of the National Human Rights Commission (NHRC), spoke at Siksha 'O' Anusandhan Deemed to be University (SOA) in Bhubaneswar. He emphasized that the purpose of holistic education extends beyond intellectual expansion to encompass the shaping of character and the physical, mental, moral, and spiritual development of an individual.

He highlighted Swami Vivekananda's four parameters for education: equipping individuals with knowledge, intellect, and spiritual awareness for a fulfilling life. Mr. Justice Ramasubramanian stressed that education is a lifelong process, extending "from womb to tomb," and questioned whether current educational systems truly prepare students for life's challenges, particularly in developing mental strength and resilience. He noted the increased stress among students today compared to previous generations, attributing it to a lack of preparedness for adversity.

Citing the 2008 Global Financial Crisis as an example, he narrated the tragic story of a successful chartered accountant who, despite his achievements, lacked the mental fortitude to cope with loss, leading to a family tragedy. This underscored his point that true education should equip individuals with "crisis management" skills and the right attitude, not just degrees.

Mr. Justice Ramasubramanian concluded by congratulating SOA for its progress and commitment. The event was attended by SOA Vice-Chancellor Prof. Pradipta Kumar Nanda, Prof. Santosh Kumar Rout, Prof. Pabhat Kumar Sarangi, and Prof. Renu Sharma.

Incident involved Major Shimreingam Shaiza and four others, alleged killed in staged encounter

CBI probe found weapons planted, encounter was deliberate killing cover-up

Supreme Court ordered CBI investigation in 2017

The Imphal West Sessions Court on Thursday framed charges against four former Manipur police commandos in connection with the alleged fake encounter of Major Shimreingam Shaiza and four others in 1998.

The incident took place nearly 26 years ago on August 29, 1998 and has remained a symbol of delayed justice in Manipur. The court named Thokchom Krishnatombi, then a Sub-Inspector, and constables Khundongbam Inaobi, Thangkhongam Lungdim, and Md Akhtar Hussain as accused in the case.

Charges have been framed under IPC Sections 302 (murder), 307 (attempt to murder), 201 (causing disappearance of evidence) and 34 (acts done with common intention).

Major Shaiza, brother of former Manipur Chief Minister Yangmasho Shaiza, was travelling in a vehicle reportedly bearing a Nagaland number plate along with four others when he was allegedly killed in a fake encounter. Manipur police, in its investigation had claimed that it was an encounter with armed insurgents.

However, over time, those claims began to unravel. The FIR filed by SI Krishnatombi alleged the vehicle failed to stop at a police signal and opened fire, prompting retaliation. But eyewitnesses and the victims' families disputed this version, asserting the firing was unprovoked and targeted.

A second FIR, filed later by Major Shaiza's wife, Pemla Shaiza, described the incident as a cold-blooded killing of innocent civilians, including prominent figures such as Thenucho, a former Nagaland Assembly Speaker and Nagaland Police officers.

The case remained stagnant for years until the Supreme Court intervened in July 2017, directing the Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI) to investigate the case. A Special Investigation Team (SIT) was constituted and was assisted by the National Human Rights Commission (NHRC) in its probe. The Justice C Upendra Commission of Inquiry also supported the investigation.

The SIT's findings indicated that the weapons allegedly recovered from the vehicle were likely planted and the "encounter" was staged to cover up deliberate killings. Following this, the CBI filed a charge sheet in June 2020, naming six commando personnel.

While the court has now found sufficient grounds to frame charges against four of them, proceedings against the remaining have stalled as the Manipur government's Home Department has denied prosecution sanction.

Hyderabad Crime News: हैदराबाद पुलिस की कार्यशैली एक बार फिर सवाल के घेरे में हैं. हालिया दिनों पति-पत्नी के आपसी विवाद में पुलिस ने एक मुस्लिम व्यक्ति की बेरहमी से पिटाई की. मामला उजागर होने के बाद पीड़ित परिजनों की शिकायत पर NHRC ने मामले का संज्ञान लिया है.

Written By Raihan Shahid | Last Updated: Jun 06, 2025, 02:13 PM IST

Hyderabad News Today: हैदराबाद में पुलिस की बर्बरता और क्रूरता का एक भयावह चेहरा सामने आया है. इस मामले में राष्ट्रीय मानवाधिकार आयोग (NHRC) ने तेलंगाना पुलिस पर ऑटो ड्राइवर मोहम्मद इरफान की पिटाई से हुई मौत के मामले में खुद संज्ञान लिया है.

यह घटना 13 मई को हुई थी, जब 35 वर्षीय इरफान अपनी पत्नी नाहिदा के परिवार के साथ राजेंद्रनगर पुलिस स्टेशन गया था. मामला पति-पत्नी के आपसी विवाद से जुड़ा था. इस घटना के उजागर होने के बाद पुलिस की कार्यशैली पर एक बार फिर सवाल खड़े होने लगे हैं.

मिली जानकारी के मुताबिक, पहले तो पुलिस ने दोनों पक्षों की काउंसलिंग की, लेकिन इसके बाद इरफान को एक कमरे में ले जाकर खबर की बेल्ट से बुरी तरह पिटाई की. मृतक इरफान के भाई सादिक घटना वाले दिन मौके पर मौजूद थे. सादिक ने आरोप लगाया कि पुलिस उनके भाई इरफान को बुरी तरह से पीट रही थी और उनकी चीखें बाहर तक सुनाई दे रही थी.

मृतक के भाई सादिक ने बताया कि जब पुलिस उनके भाई इरफान को प्रताड़ित कर रही थी, तो एक कांस्टेबल ने उन्हें मौके से भगा दिया. करीब एक घंटे बाद इरफान थाने की सीढ़ियों पर उल्टी करता हुआ बाहर आया और वहीं गिर पड़ा. पुलिस ने कहा कि इरफान को कुछ नहीं हुआ है, लेकिन स्वास्थ्य स्थिति बिगड़ती देख परिवार ने उन्हें एक निजी अस्पताल में भर्ती कराया.

निजी अस्पताल में इरफान की हालत में सुधार न होता देखकर पीड़ित परिवार वालों ने उसे उस्मानिया अस्पताल में भर्ती कराया. जहां डॉक्टरों ने चिकित्सकीय परीक्षण के बाद इरफान को मृत घोषित कर दिया. पीड़ित परिजनों ने राजेंद्रनगर पुलिस को इरफान की मौत के लिए जिम्मेदार ठहराया है.

सादिक ने गंभीर आरोप लगाते हुए कहा कि क्या पुलिस को वैवाहिक विवाद में किसी को पीटने का हक है? उन्होंने आलाधिकारियों से इंसाफ की गुहार लगाते हुए मांग की कि पुलिस स्टेशन में लगे सीसीटीवी फुटेज की जांच कर दोषी पुलिसकर्मियों पर सख्त कार्रवाई हो. हालांकि, पुलिस ने इस मामले में सिर्फ 'संदिग्ध मौत' के तहत मामला दर्ज किया है.

इसके उलट मृतक इरफान की पत्नी ने पुलिस में शिकायत दर्ज कराई है कि उसका किसी और महिला के साथ नाजायज संबंध था. पत्नी के मामूली आरोप पर पुलिस की कथित पिटाई से इरफान की मौत सवालों के घेरे में हैं. NHRC ने इस मामले पर तेलंगाना के पुलिस महानिदेशक (DGP) से दो हफ्तों के अंदर विस्तृत रिपोर्ट मांगी है.

बता दें, NHRC एक वैधानिक संस्था है. जिसकी स्थापना 1993 में की गई थी. इसका काम नागरिकों के मानवाधिकारों की रक्षा करना और सरकार की ओर से होने वाले अत्याचारों की जांच करना है. पुलिस प्रताड़ना से इरफान की संदिग्ध मौत मामले में NHRC ने नोटिस जारी कर जवाब मांगा है.
