

Subject: Virtual Conference on ‘Online Child Sexual Abuse Material’

The National Human Rights Commission is organizing a Virtual Conference on ‘Online Child Sexual Abuse Material’ on 21st July 2020 from 11:00AM to 1:00 PM. The Conference will be chaired by Hon’ble Member, Smt. Jyotika Kalra and Shri. Jaideep Govind will address the audience through his inaugural address.

The conference is being organized in response to the deeply concerning increase in the accessibility and use of Child Sexual Abuse Material (CSAM) within the cyber space, especially with the rapid growth of internet technology and social media platforms.

The conference will have subject experts shedding light upon three different topic areas, namely: (i) Role of Law and the Ways to Strengthen It, (ii) The Boom of Social Media and the Psycho-Social Impact of Child Pornography, and (iii) Tackling Heads-On: Strategies for Parents, Schools and State. Participants from diverse but related fields will be joining the Conference through the video conferencing platform Cisco Webex.
