National Human Rights Commission
Manav Adhikar Bhawan, 'C' Block,
GPO Complex, INA, New Delhi – 110023

Dated, the 16th Oct., 2019

Subject : Engagement of Special Rapporteurs in the National Human Rights Commission.

The National Human Rights Commission has a scheme of engagement of Special Rapporteurs to "examine, monitor, evaluate, advise and report" on human rights violations through "activities undertaken by special procedures, conducting visits and providing advice" on emerging issues from the perspective of human rights. Special Rapporteur is a title given to an individual who is working on behalf of NHRC within the scope of laid down Guidelines on either a region specific mandate (Zonal Special Rapporteurs) or on thematic issues (Thematic Special Rapporteurs) pertaining to the human rights.

In terms of the Scheme and Guidelines for engagement of Special Rapporteurs enclosed at Annexure-I, a person who has held high posts in Government of India or State Government or is an academican of repute or an eminent person who have knowledge of, or practical experience in matters relating to Human Rights or a domain expert is eligible for appointment as Special Rapporteur.

In accordance with the above scheme, the Commission proposes to engage Special Rapporteurs for South and West Zones.

Eligible and interested candidates may submit their application by post to the Joint Secretary(A&R), National Human Rights Commission, Manav Adhikar Bhawan, 'C' Block, GPO Complex, INA, New Delhi – 110023 in the prescribed proforma (Annexure-II), either by post or by hand, on or before 3rd December, 2019. Application not in the prescribed proforma or incomplete applications are liable to be summarily rejected.
